Local Action Stalls Ave, Chief Remains Consolidation Wins 3-1 in Rural Poll

City Will Make Next Step Now Local Board Holds Meeting Tonight

By a vote of three to one residents of 25 school districts adjacent to Kingston voted Wednesday for consolidation with the City of Kingston, to form the Greater Kingston Area.

The total vote cast was 2966 with 2166 voting in favor of the consolidation; 763 votes were cast against and there were 37 void ballots.

To Discuss Plan Tonight

The next step must be taken by the board of education of Kingston and it is expected official action will be taken at the monthly meeting of the board this evening.

It is expected detailed plans for future action will be considered by the Kingston board of education tonight and an announcement will be forthcoming as to the next step which Kingston will take.

It is expected public forums will be held in Kingston at which persons familiar with the consolidation program will discuss the plan.

Would Be Guide

The Kingston Parent-Teacher Association Council has agreed to supply the machinery for an "informal vote" on consolidation in the city of Kingston early in April. While this vote would not be binding upon the board of education of Kingston, which has the final decision on whether to join in the consolidated district and accept the pupils from the outlying areas, the result of this referendum undoubtedly would have a great effect upon board action.

Voting took place Wednesday at eight schools in the proposed consolidation area: Port Ewen, Sawkill, Tilton, Maple Hill, Hurley, Lake Katrine, Chambers School and Zena.

Chairman Pleased

The vote in the area was considered "excellent" by members of the Greater Kingston Area Consolidation Committee, of which John L. Vines is chairman.

The proposal submitted to the voters Wednesday was whether or not they favored the formation of a new district composed of the Kingston City School District and 25 adjoining school districts which now contract for all (Continued on Page 31, Col. 7)

Producers Would Set Milk Price At $3.40 in Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of northeast milk producers has proposed a means of setting the price of manufacturing milk at $3.40 a hundredweight during the next marketing year.

The group, which calls itself the Northeast Dairy Bloc and claims to represent about 15,000 milk producers, last night termed its proposal a compromise at a dinner meeting of congressmen from the area.

Under the Dairy Bloc's proposal supports would be set at 86 percent of parity, compared with the present 82.5 percent. This, the group said, would raise manufacturing-milk support prices 15 cents a hundredweight above the present level—$3.25.

Agriculture Secretary Benson announced in December that he planned to reduce the manufacturing-milk support level to $3, or 75 percent of parity. Since then, a number of bills have been introduced in Congress to prevent the reduction. Legislation also has been introduced calling for even higher supports.

The compromise, if effected, would be brought about through amendment of the agricultural act "to continue the range of price supports between 75 and 90 percent of parity provided that for the marketing year ending March 31, 1959, the price of milk for manufacturing purposes shall be supported at not less than $3.40 a hundredweight."

The Dairy Bloc was formed in Albany, N. Y., last January, at the suggestion of the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Assn. of Syracuse, N. Y.

The group also includes the United Milk Producers of New Jersey, Northern Farms Cooperative of Vermont, Maine Dairy-men's Cooperative, Fall River (Mass.) Milk Producers Cooperative, and the Local Dairy-men's Assn. of Providence, R. I.

Cornell Towing Line Bought by Trap Rock

Wilson P. Foss, III, president of New York Trap Rock Corporation, today announced the purchase of the Cornell Steamboat Company. The acquisition of the famed river towing line which traces its existence back to 1837, marks the merger of two of the Hudson Valley's oldest firms.

Foss stated that all of the Cornell Steamboat Company capital stock and towing franchises will be acquired. Also to be included in the transaction is the 80-foot, 600 HP tug "Rocktow". The outright purchase of the Cornell Company, which has been providing tug service on the Hudson River for Trap Rock's deck cargo fleet of about 215 barges, will enable the stone-crushing firm to put into effect more efficient towing methods.

Will Speed Up Delivery

Foss explains it this way: "The tug operation will permit us to take full advantage of more modern towing methods to speed stone deliveries to our customers as well as the return of light boats to the quarries for reloading. Another advantage in the proposed towing plan will be Cornell's ability to take greater advantage of favorable tides. Strong tides hamper the operation of large fleets of barges, sometimes causing them to come to a standstill at times of strong adverse tides."

He estimated that travel time to the "market area" in New York City will be sliced in half with an overall saving of about 25 percent being attained in deliveries to the points in Long Island, Connecticut, New Jersey and elsewhere.

Smaller Tows

The flotilla type operation with 18 or 20 barges going to market at the same time will be abandoned. Under the proposed towing plan twice a day dispatching of smaller tows with six or eight barges will be the rule.

For the principal power in the stepped-up transportation program, Trap Rock will, for the present, charter larger and more powerful tugs in the 1600 HP class. While most of Cornell's activities, will continue as heretofore, being largely confined to the Hudson River, it is expected that some of the additional power will permit the expansion of delivery service to more distant points.

The names of both New York Trap Rock Corporation and the Cornell Steamboat Company are embedded deeply in the history of the Hudson Valley. The stone crushing firm supplies large quantities of coarse aggregates to the area's expanded highway construction program.

Founded in 1897

The Tomkins Cove Stone Company, the properties of which were acquired by Trap Rock in 1927, was founded well before the Civil War. In 1897 Wilson P. Foss Sr. formed the Conklin & Foss Quarrying firm—precursor to the present corporation. His son, Wilson P. Foss Jr., carried on the tradition of the family which is so closely identified with the early history and development of Rockland County communities. He was chairman of the board when he died last November 17.

Thomas Cornell, who migrated from White Plains to Rondout Creek in Kingston in 1835, commenced the towing opera-

Catskill Lawyer Held for Larceny

A Catskill attorney, employed by the law department of the New York City Board of Water Supply, 41 John Street, was arrested today by Kingston state police on charges of first degree grand larceny and second degree forgery.

John D. Whittaker, 55, was arrested by Cpl. Edward Shannon and Trooper Joseph Ventriglia on a bench warrant at 8:20 a. m. in Catskill.

It was reported that Whittaker, a former Greene County Democratic committeeman and former police justice in the Village of Catskill, was arrested on charges allegedly involving the forging of an $11,500 check.

Boyd, Ryan Decline to Pen Waivers

Two more persons identified with the road oil business were summoned before the Ulster County grand jury today. Both were seen entering the grand jury room and later it was stated they had declined to sign waivers of immunity and testify.

They were Austin Boyd Jr., manager of the Lansell Co., Inc., of 57 Teller Street, road material distributors, and Morgan D. Ryan, a former New York State Veterans Counsellor and presently associated with the Ulster County Welfare Department. He was connected with the Ulster Bituminous Distributors, Inc., which operated an asphalt plant on Onteora Trail and later sold out its plant to Lansell.

Wednesday former Superintendent of the Kingston Public Works Department Ernest Steuding and Harry Barieka, of Kingston, associated with the Walter Truck Company, were before the grand jury and declined to sign waivers and testify.

It was reported later both Steuding and Barieka would be summoned before the Reuter investigating committee and might be questioned today in New York City.

The investigation into alleged "kickbacks" to town officials was being continued today by the January grand jury.

That grand jury will report to the Supreme Court next Monday at noon, under direction by Supreme Court Justice Kenneth A. MacAffee.

Pleads Innocent

Rocco Benevento, superintendent of highways, Town of Marlboro, pleaded innocent at noon today to a charge of receiving kickbacks when arraigned before County Judge Louis G. Bruhn.

He was among public officials indicted by the January grand jury for alleged violation of Section 372 of the Penal Law.

Benevento, represented by the law firm of Kelly, Saccoman & Napolitano, was allowed 20 days by Judge Bruhn to prepare motions.

New Lockup for Saugerties Is Recommended by State

A state report recommends that the Village of Saugerties provide detention facilities at police headquarters to give proper supervision to prisoners.

The recommendation was made by the State Commission of Correction in a report of inspection issued today to town and village officials.

The present two-cell detention facilities are situated on the ground floor of a two-story brick structure on Russell Street, some distance from police headquarters in Saugerties Municipal Building on Partition Street. The building is owned by the Town of Saugerties and the detention facilities are leased to the village, the report said.

Drury Will Get Honor On Sunday Celebrations Are Set at School for New Protonotary

Eight monsignori, 50 priests and more than 100 members of the religious will participate in investiture ceremonies of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury, T.A., V.F., as protonotary apostolic on Sunday, March 9 at 3 p. m. at St. Mary's Church.

The Most Rev. James H. Griffiths, STD, JCD, auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of New York, will officiate.

The investiture ceremonies will begin a three-day celebration in observance of conferring the Roman Catholic Church honor on Msgr. Drury, who will celebrate his first Pontifical Mass at St. Mary's Church on Easter Sunday, April 6 at 11 a. m.

Celebration Monday

Other phases of the celebration include a parish reception at St. Mary's School Hall on Monday, March 10, at 8 p. m., and a school reception on Tuesday, March 11 at 1:15 p. m. Members of the parish and friends are invited to all events.

Announcement of the honor, conferred by a Papal Brief by Pope Pius XII in Rome on January 7 was conveyed to Msgr. Drury by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman at a meeting of the Board of Consultors of the archdiocese, to which Msgr. Drury recently was appointed.

Historic Honor

The office of protonotary apostolic dates back to the first century when seven notaries were appointed by Pope St. Clement.

Certain privileges of dress and precedence and a limited use of the "Pontificalia" go with the office. The latter privilege is the most striking since, on certain occasions, the wearing of the pectoral cross, mitre and ring and other articles of ceremonial dress—usually reserved to the bishop—were prescribed for the protonotary apostolic when he pontificates at high Mass.

Full Program Listed

600 Dog Owners Fail to Buy Tags

Things are going to the dogs—but not fast enough. That was the attitude in at least one area of the city hall today.

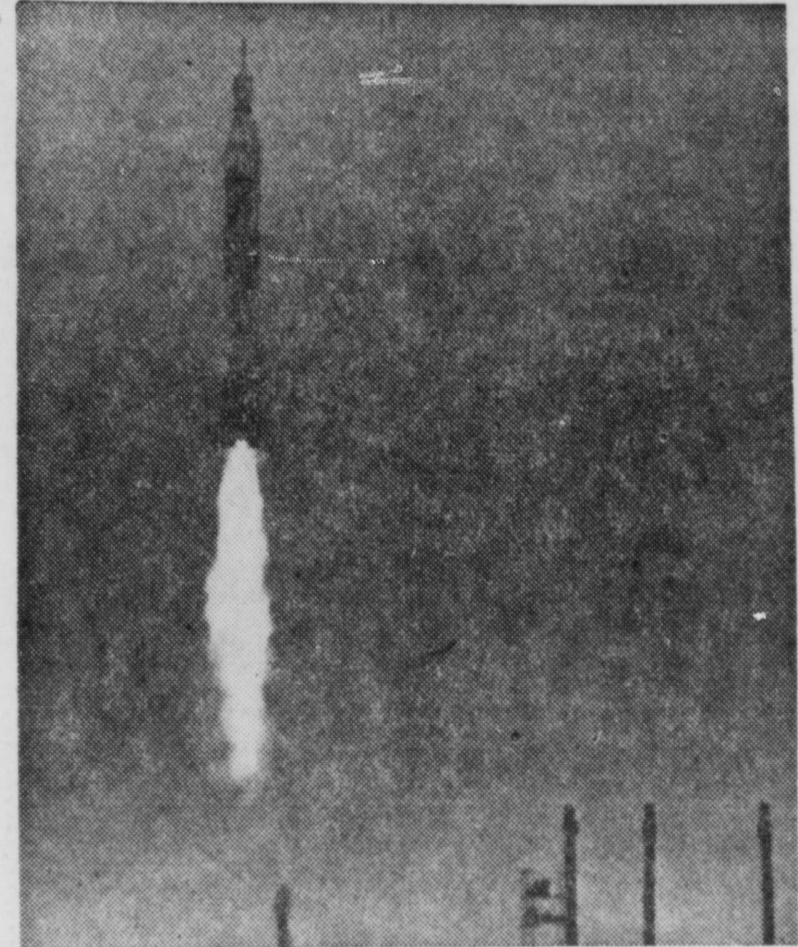

As a result, the names of 600 persons went to City Judge Aaron S. Klein.

The reason: They haven't picked up their dog tags.

Our census, completed late last year, showed a canine population of 2,231 and each of the lot is due to be on record for tagging.

The deadline for this annual procedure is Feb. 10, and if the delinquents don't show up soon, the judge is issuing summons.

The tags are issued at the city clerk's office.

BOUND FOR OUTER SPACE—An Army Jupiter C missile, carrying a nose cone satellite, soars above antenna poles and the service tower (directly under missile) as it heads skyward from Cape Canaveral, Fla., March 5. (AP Wirephoto)

Fears Grow on Failure Of Army's Second Moon

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Moonwatch teams geared themselves today for a sky search for the Army's newly launched and mysteriously missing satellite, Explorer II.

At the same time, the conviction grew that the six-inch metal cylinder, 80 inches long and weighing about 32 pounds, never achieved an orbit.

Final Stage Failure

There were persistent reports that signals from the Jupiter-C launching rocket convinced some Army missile experts, within the first hour after yesterday's firing at 1:28 p. m., that the final stage of the four-stage vehicle had failed to fire.

Officials of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency and of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory which built the high speed upper stages, were unavailable for comment. Werner von Braun, German-born head of the Army space program, left for Huntsville, Ala., before reporters could question him about the launching.

Experts said that failure of the final stage to fire on cue would have meant that the satellite, even though it was at orbital altitude of 200 or more miles, would achieve a velocity of only about three miles a second as against the five miles a second needed to maintain an orbit—10,800 miles an hour instead of 18,000.

Less Than Half Around

This in turn could mean that the satellite would tumble into the South Atlantic, or into Africa or the Indian Ocean beyond.

The cylinder would have traveled less than half way around the world before tumbling down through the atmosphere.

In Washington last night, Dr.

Richard Porter, chairman of the earth satellite panel of the U. S. National Committee for the International Geophysical Year, told newsmen there was "some indication that the satellite is not functioning normally."

Porter said there had been indications from the Minitrack radio tracking station here and at one other point that the fourth stage did not function.

"There is other information, however, that it probably did and that the difficulty is more probably in the radio transmission equipment," Porter added.

At Pasadena, Calif., Dr. William Pickering, head of JPL, said there was every indication that the satellite was not functioning properly and that there was a probability that it was not in orbit.

May Take Several Days

Pickering said it probably would take several days to interpret technical data sufficiently to find out what had happened.

In Cambridge, Mass., the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said it was alerting Moonwatch teams to be on the lookout for Explorer even though it had not been determined whether it was in orbit.

If it was in orbit, the satellite would not be visible in the United States until next week, the observatory said.

At Iowa City, Iowa, Dr. James Van Allen, who directed construction of decoding equipment in the satellite, said there were three possible reasons why the second satellite had not been located.

Van Allen said the satellite might not have achieved an orbit, might have gone into a different orbit than was expected, or might have sustained failure of its radio.

West to Ask Arms Parley As Soviet Boycott Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has informally advised Russia that the Western powers intend to ask for a meeting of the United Nations Disarmament Commission this month.

The move is designed to test Russia's declared intention of boycotting the commission. If the Soviets refuse to cooperate, the Western powers then will take the issue of disarmament negotiations into the United Nations Security Council.

The notification to Russia was reported today as Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov prepared to make his first full-dress public speech in the United States since his arrival here early last month. U. S. officials look to it for possible amplification of Moscow's ideas on getting ready for a proposed summit conference.

His scheduled appearance at the National Press Club is the first for a Soviet envoy before that body in 17 years.

The last Russian ambassador to address the club was Maxim Litvinov who spoke on Dec. 30, 1941. However, Vladimir Matskevich, the first deputy Soviet agricultural minister, spoke there in August 1955 after touring the United States.

The plan to seek a showdown on Russia's intentions toward disarmament negotiation was developed by the United States in consultation with its NATO allies. It was put in final form in Paris last week.

The Western governments decided that so far as Russia is concerned, the whole operation should be handled in a friendly manner so the Soviets would have evidence that the Western powers were not simply trying to embarrass them.

The U. N. Disarmament Commission was created by the General Assembly late last year after the final breakdown of disarmament talks in a U. N. subcommittee meeting in London. Russia was a member of that committee along with the United States, Britain, France and Canada.

The Russians took the position that disarmament talks had gotten nowhere and they asked for creation of a much larger body. They proposed as its preference a committee composed of the whole United Nations membership of 82 nations. The United States and other countries took the position that such a large group would be unwieldy. In the end the debate produced the 25-member commission now to be called into session, but the Soviets declared their opposition to it from the first.

Hearing By Board Necessary Pact Made on More Time for Van Buren

Police Chief Raymond VanBuren, ordered Tuesday by Gov. Harriman to quit by March 15, as a result of the Reuter probe of the police department, can, through local action, stay on the job until he obtains social security status, it was indicated today.

Attorney Charles H. Gaffney, representing the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, and acting in behalf of the chief, conferred with Mayor Edwin F. Radel this morning, and wrote to the mayor for the record, the following:

Text of Pact

"I am writing to confirm our conference of this morning with Chief of Police VanBuren, and the result of the same, namely, that Chief VanBuren is to remain in his present position through the month of April, 1958, and for some additional time, if circumstances make it necessary or advisable. We are, of course, giving thought and consideration to the chief's desire to obtain Social Security benefits.

"As agreed at the conference, Chief VanBuren and I are issuing a joint statement confirming the foregoing understanding.

Chief Grateful

"Chief VanBuren wants me to express his thanks for your courteous consideration."

It was indicated that copies of the letter were to be sent to all members of the Board of Police Commissioners.

Adviser Coming

Other developments since announcement of the governor's ultimatum, included arrival here today of copies of the Reuter report, an Albany announcement that Lt. Kenneth Weidenborner, of the state police, will be here next week to assist in reorganization of the police force, and indication by the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, that it will make no announcement until it is thoroughly studied.

The KPA met yesterday, but withheld action on the report which charged laxity and misconduct in the department.

Board in His Corner

The governor's order asking resignation of the chief, it was learned today, cannot be final without hearing before the police board, which has already indicated sentiment in favor of the chief obtaining social security status.

Chief Van Buren, a policeman for 37 years, has headed the department for 10 years. He has said that he will resign as soon as his social security status is established. The Common Council has taken initial action toward approving social security coverage for police department personnel.

Starts March 10

Mayor Radel said today that he had received notice that Lt. Weidenborner, assigned by Francis McGarvey, state police superintendent, will be here starting March 10 to assist in betterment of the police department.

Mayor Radel said he was informed that Lt. Weidenborner assigned to assist in "modernization" of the police department. He will make recommendations, assist in reorganization, will discuss with the police chief rearrangement of present quarters, filing and communications, personnel and other records. He will remain on duty here until it is no longer considered necessary.

Lt. Weidenborner had previously been assigned to Troop C at Sidney, which covers the Kingston area.

Gov. Harriman, as a result of the Reuter report, ordered that Chief Van Buren signify his intention to resign by March 15 or face ouster proceedings. The latter, it has since been indicated, could allow time for the chief to gain social security coverage.

Asks 'Vigorous' Man

The Reuter report recommended that a new "vigorous" chief, selected from outside the local department, be named to head the police force.

Investigation of the department by Arthur L. Reuter, acting state investigation commissioner, began after the filing of petitions in Albany requesting the probe. It came after findings by a grand jury and the district attorney's office after the arrest last July of patrolmen on burglary charges.

World Dances Are To Be Featured At Paltz School

International Night, a program of international dances and music by the students of the Campus School at the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, will be held March 14 in the College Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. According to Campus School P-TA officials, who are sponsoring the program, the original date announced was March 21. However the program has been moved up to March 14.

Each class, except kindergarten, will do a dance typical of some country or group of people. Among the countries and groups represented are France, Ireland, Brazil, Czechoslovakia, Holland, Israel, China, Sweden, Italy, Russia, the Philippines, the American Indian and the French Canadians. Special numbers of the program will center around Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Indonesia, and India.

The costumes will be as nearly authentic as possible, and Miss Margie Garland, assistant professor of Home Economics at the Campus School, has written to the Consul from various countries to get an accurate description of the native costumes. The parents, teachers and the costume committee, including Miss Garland as chairman, Elizabeth Allen, Joan Craft and Henriette Wicks, are all working together on the project.

John Harrison and Ivan Ferguson are handling the staging of the production. Merrill Arch assisted by the college foreign students is teaching the dances and Milton Otteson is in charge of the musical selections.

Tickets for the program are available from any Campus School student, or may be obtained from the Campus School Office, Monday through Thursday, from 8:30 until 9 a. m. Mrs. Edward Klotzberger and the Campus School P-TA members are in charge of the ticket sales and publicity.

Cancer Film Will Be Shown at New Paltz College

A film entitled "Breast Self-Examination" dealing with cancer will be shown to an all-women audience at the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, Wednesday, 8 p. m., in the College Union Building. Dr. John L. Alley of Kingston will be the guest speaker.

According to Mrs. Robert Pyle, head of the education program of the Ulster County Division of the American Cancer Society and Miss Roslyn Garfield, assistant professor of health education at the college, the meeting is open to all women in the New Paltz area as well as students and faculty of the college.

AMERICAN MENU

American - Style or Irish, Paddy's Stew Is Delicious

IRISH STEW is a natural for St. Patrick's Day. This is the Old World style, but there's also a good American treatment.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

With St. Patrick's Day coming along, let's get the lowdown on authentic Irish stew.

In Ireland it is made principally from cheaper cuts of mutton with onions and potatoes. The meat is brought to the table with the vegetables around it, the gravy being served separately.

The American version is made from cheaper cuts of lamb with three or four vegetables. Meats, vegetables and gravy are all served together.

Lamb-Vegetable Irish Stew—American Style
(8-10 servings)

Trim excess fat from 2 pounds boneless shoulder or neck of lamb. Brown meat on all sides in Dutch oven or 4-quart saucepan in some of the fat trimmed from the meat. Add 4 cups boiling water, 3 sprigs parsley, 3 ribs celery, 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon whole peppercorns (tied in a bag) and 4 teaspoons salt. Cover tightly and simmer about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Add 1 1/2 dozen peeled small white onions, 8 peeled and quartered carrots, 4 medium peeled and quartered potatoes and cook 30-40 minutes or until meat and vegetables are tender. If desired add 1 cup shelled fresh peas or snap beans 15-20 minutes before cooking time is up. Thicken with 1/4 cup flour mixed to a paste with 1/2 cup water. Cook to medium thickness. Serve hot.

Irish Stew
(Yield: 6 servings)

Trim excess fat from 2 pounds boneless shoulder of lamb or mutton. Cut into 1-inch cubes. Place in Dutch oven or heavy 4-quart saucepan along with 1 peeled and chopped onion and 1 peeled and sliced potato. Add 2 cups water, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper. Cover and cook slowly 1 hour. Peel 6 potatoes and 12 onions and place over meat. Cook, covered, 40 minutes longer or until meat and vegetables are tender. Place meat in center of warm serving dish. Place onions and potatoes around meat. Garnish with fresh parsley. Strain pan drippings and thicken with 2 tablespoons flour mixed to a smooth paste with 2 tablespoons cold water. Cook, stirring constantly, until clear and slightly thickened. Serve in a gravy boat.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: American style Irish stew, soda bread, green salad, butter or margarine, lime gelatin, whipped cream, lady-fingers, coffee, tea, milk.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The boss is the boss again.

The down turn in jobs has made this forgotten figurehead of business a person of importance once more.

It always happens that way.

When there are more jobs than people, nobody pays much attention to the boss. He tiptoes around the place talking to himself—for fear that if he says something out loud he'll hurt somebody's feelings, and the guy'll quit and go to work for a competitor.

But when there are more people than jobs—such as right now—the boss again becomes industry's "father image." The problem of the wise worker then becomes one of how to please his paycheck pappy.

Young Need Advice

So it is time to revive again a forgotten American art—the art of apple polishing.

You older hired hands, who've survived bad times before, know how to do this instinctively. Just as an old boxer never quite forgets his footwork or how to protect himself in the clinches. It's the young employees, who've never known a recession, who are likely through pure ignorance to get gored by a rampant boss now.

They need help. So here are a few tips on how to butter up a boss:

1. First, find out who the boss is. If there is a fellow in your office who used to sneak out to play golf at 2 p. m. but now goes around picking paper clips off the floor to cut down expenses, look no farther.

2. Keep your feet off your desk while he is in view. If he speaks to you, rise to your feet and address him as "Sir," a polite term used in ancient times to one's superiors. It is not necessary, however, to salute him. (Not unless times get really bad.)

3. Maintain a serious mien at all times except if the boss tells a joke. In this case laugh first and longest—but don't overdo it. It isn't wise to let the boss know how scared you really are.

4. Never interrupt his old joke to tell a new one of your own. The boss no longer wants you to be amusing on company time. The only reason he is telling you a joke is to keep his own spirits up.

5. When going to the water cooler, stride up quickly and self-confidently (as if you had really earned the right to a drink), gulp a fast one, and return to your desk. Do not linger around the water cooler to ambush the giggling stenographers. Those days are over—for the duration.

6. Around noon go into the boss's office, ask him if you can borrow some salt and pepper, then explain, "a little personal thrift doesn't hurt anyone, chief. I'm bringing my lunch to the office now."

7. Be more helpful in small ways. If you know your boss and his wife are going out for the evening, ask him if you and your wife can't baby-sit for them—for fun. This, of course, is downright toadyism, but it will please your wife to visit the boss's home—and see that his wife is an even lousier housekeeper than she is.

8. Finally, if you are really worried about losing your job, tell your boss, "I want you to be the first to congratulate me, chief. My uncle just died and left me $100,000." For some reason every boss hates to fire an employee who has more money than he does.

Anybody who follows these simple rules will weather practically any office, economy drive and probably be the first to get a raise when the boom resumes.

That is, if the boss doesn't lose his own job. There's always that possibility—and it means a terrible waste of butter, too.

State Tax Bureau Offers Free Aid In Filing Return

Complaints of overcharging by private firms in the business of making out State income tax returns today prompted George M. Bragallini, president of the State Tax Commission, to remind taxpayers that the State Income Tax Bureau prepares taxpayers returns free of charge.

Representatives of the State Income Tax Bureau will be at the Ulster County Sheriff's Office March 20 through April 15 to aid local taxpayers in preparing their returns.

Among the complaints received by Commissioner Bragallini, he said, is that advertising of some of the private service agencies is misleading—taxpayers led to believe that the fee is $5 when they are charged many times that on the ground that their return is "not standard" or "especially complicated."

State income tax returns are due April 15 from single persons with net income of $1,000 or more last year and from married couples with joint net income of $2,500 or more.

Commissioner Bragallini listed the following schedule of points where taxpayers may have their State returns prepared without charge by representatives of the State Income Tax Bureau:

McPHAIL ON BASEBALL

"Baseball is in real trouble. I regret to say that it is no longer the national pastime. As a fan . . . this profoundly disturbs me." These words were written recently by Larry McPhail, who operated the Cincinnati Reds from 1933 to 1937, the Brooklyn Dodgers 1938-42, and the New York Yankees 1945-46. He was a promoter, and while he appears to have gained the reputation of being erratic, Larry McPhail has a very good head on his shoulders, a much better one than those of the current owners and other men of authority in baseball today.

Thus, his testimony before the Celler subcommittee on monopoly in Washington in 1951 was, perhaps, the most intelligent of any made by the front office men who testified before that Congressional body. And a so-called secret report of a committee of four on baseball's 1946 crisis, written by McPhail, reveals that his grasp of problems was clear and incisive.

Now out of baseball, McPhail puts his finger on the mistakes of owners, the effect of changing social conditions in the game, and the reasons for a decline of interest in it. His proposals for a revival of interest in baseball and a sense of importance of the game merit reflection. This includes his plan for four major leagues consisting of 32 clubs.

McPhail's recent article in Life consists of straight talking and thinking. Fans who are interested or concerned about baseball in crisis and its possible sickness and decline will find an analysis which cuts through wishful thinking and complacency to the real problems.

TIME TO CATCH UP

In the long run, Congress is responsive to the will of the people. It is unfortunate that sometimes the long run is very long indeed.

A case in point is the St. Lawrence seaway project. Though it was clearly in the public interest, and though presidents over the course of several decades gave it their support, this great waterway and power development was not authorized by Congress until 1954. Another case in point—and one still unresolved—is the matter of statehood for Alaska and Hawaii.

Why the citizens of those territories should enjoy less than the full rights and privileges of U. S. citizenship is an aggravating mystery. Hawaii was annexed by the United States 60 years ago this summer; Alaska was purchased in 1867. For more than a decade, public opinion in this country has strongly favored statehood for both territories.

Bills to that end have been introduced in Congress at each session for many years, but they have always been sidestepped. This is unfair to the hundreds of thousands of Americans who live in Hawaii and Alaska. It runs contrary to public opinion in the United States. Congress had better catch up, in this instance, to the will of the people.

SHOT IN ARM FAVORED

The pressures are building up for government intervention to stimulate our sagging economy. Unemployment is uncomfortably high, the cost of living has risen again. Though confidence in the ultimate strength of our economy is fully justified, more and more expert observers seem to be concluding that a government shot in the arm would not be a bad thing.

This view received quite a bit of impetus when the joint economic committee of Congress called for "acceleration of a number of federal government expenditure programs." The committee believes that spending should be quickened in such things as highways, public buildings, housing, slum clearance, education, health.

The committee expressed the view that the recession is not serious enough to justify a tax cut. This lends support to the idea that its report should not be dismissed as mere political pressure on the adminis-

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
WHO MAKES DECISIONS?

Orderly government is the product of long trial and error, resulting in a system which is understood by those who work with it and is generally accepted. Our system is outlined in the Constitution, is implemented by acts of Congress and the decisions of the courts, particularly the Supreme Court.

It is an interesting system because it permits the greatest degree of human liberty by deliberately sacrificing the power of the government to rule by fiat, which has usually been the method of rulers. Instead, the Constitution established a system of checks and balances so that absolute power is lodged nowhere and in no person. That such a system should have survived so long is remarkable, because the looseness of authority makes for waste and inefficiency. It also gives ample opportunity for political racketeers to abuse the opportunities that are open to them.

Only in time of war have Americans consented to the application of extraordinary powers by the President. Unfortunately World War II never quite ended. It has continued into what is for convenience called the "Cold War," a political extension of the war of balance and attrition. This "Cold War," in its current phase, is marked by a contest in the production of new weapons which are themselves novel applications of newly-revealed scientific principles.

There are those who continue to comfort themselves with tales of Russian thefts of American secret formulae, a comfort which true or untrue is now of no political significance. The fact is that Soviet Russia, if not absolutely equal to us in this field, is not far behind. Should it be proved, as it will be, that Russian submarines off the coast of Florida caused American submarines to fail, it can only be that they already have a device of defense against rockets and missiles, and therefore are ahead of us.

If the Russians get far ahead of us in this field, it will be argued that we must change our system of government, as some now want us to change our system of education to meet the enemy. In a word, there will be those who will attribute our failure, should we fail, to a loose system of government in which individual liberty is regarded as more valuable than governmental efficiency. Already in the time of Franklin D. Roosevelt, because of depression and war, there were those who set the Presidency apart as a sacerdotal office with the President as a sort of man-god, a deus ex machina that could solve all problems with perfection of wisdom.

Harry Truman was too human for such a conception and it looked as though it might disappear with him, but it returned with Eisenhower, the very Republicans who had criticized Roosevelt as an absolutist, seeking such perfections in Eisenhower. However, no matter how popular the President remained, he could not transfer such popularity to Sherman Adams and Jim Hagerty who look and act very human, indeed, and often exceed constitutional authority.

In the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee's hearings, the testimony in which I am now engaged in reading, time after time, the question of authority arises. General Twining's outburst in his debate with Senator Symington is most interesting, because therein lies both a criticism and an objective view of our problem.

The issue is a clear one. Congress votes the appropriations. It needs to know what it is voting for. It needs to know whether there is an honest administration of funds voted; whether enough or too much money is voted and what is accomplished thereby. That is constitutionally the function of Congress. To this challenge of this function, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Nathan Twining, replied:

"I will give you all the information you want, and the witnesses will give you all the information you want, but you should not bring them back and say, 'Is this adequate?' after the decision has been made."

"In the military terminology, a commander makes a decision and if everybody starts bucking it, it is just no good, you have no military."

But who made the decision in question? Was it the military, the scientists, the experts or the politicians? Was it the Bureau of the Budget which has no decision-making authority under the Constitution? Who ultimately decides such questions? Under our system of government, when it is orderly, Congress decides.

Easter Seal Campaign Is

Ray of Hope for Thousands

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

It is always a pleasure at this time of year, during the Easter Seal Campaign, to say something about the physically handicapped.

Quite properly a great deal of attention is paid to research among the questions for which answers are being sought by research grants are: What are the causes of crippling? Can the number of children born with physical disabilities be reduced? What type of treatment will best lessen the after effects of crippling? What forces motivate crippled persons to struggle towards recovery? And are there improved methods of rehabilitation which will make it possible for crippled persons to make full use of their capacities?

It is by seeking answers to such questions that it may become possible to lessen the number of physically handicapped and to improve their chances for full or partial recovery if crippling should occur. These aims are in the best traditions of medicine.

BUT THE CARE and treatment of thousands of crippled children and adults is not waiting for new knowledge.

The Easter Seal Societies operate more than 1,400 programs and facilities, including diagnostic and evaluation clinics, treatment centers, rehabilitation centers, nursery schools, residential camps, sheltered workshops and similar facilities. During 1957 Easter Seals helped over 132,000 children and over 26,000 adults. It provided the scholarships, fellowships and grants to help train over 2,000 doctors, therapists and social workers in this same field.

But the human side of this help to the individual cannot be reflected in mere quotation of figures.

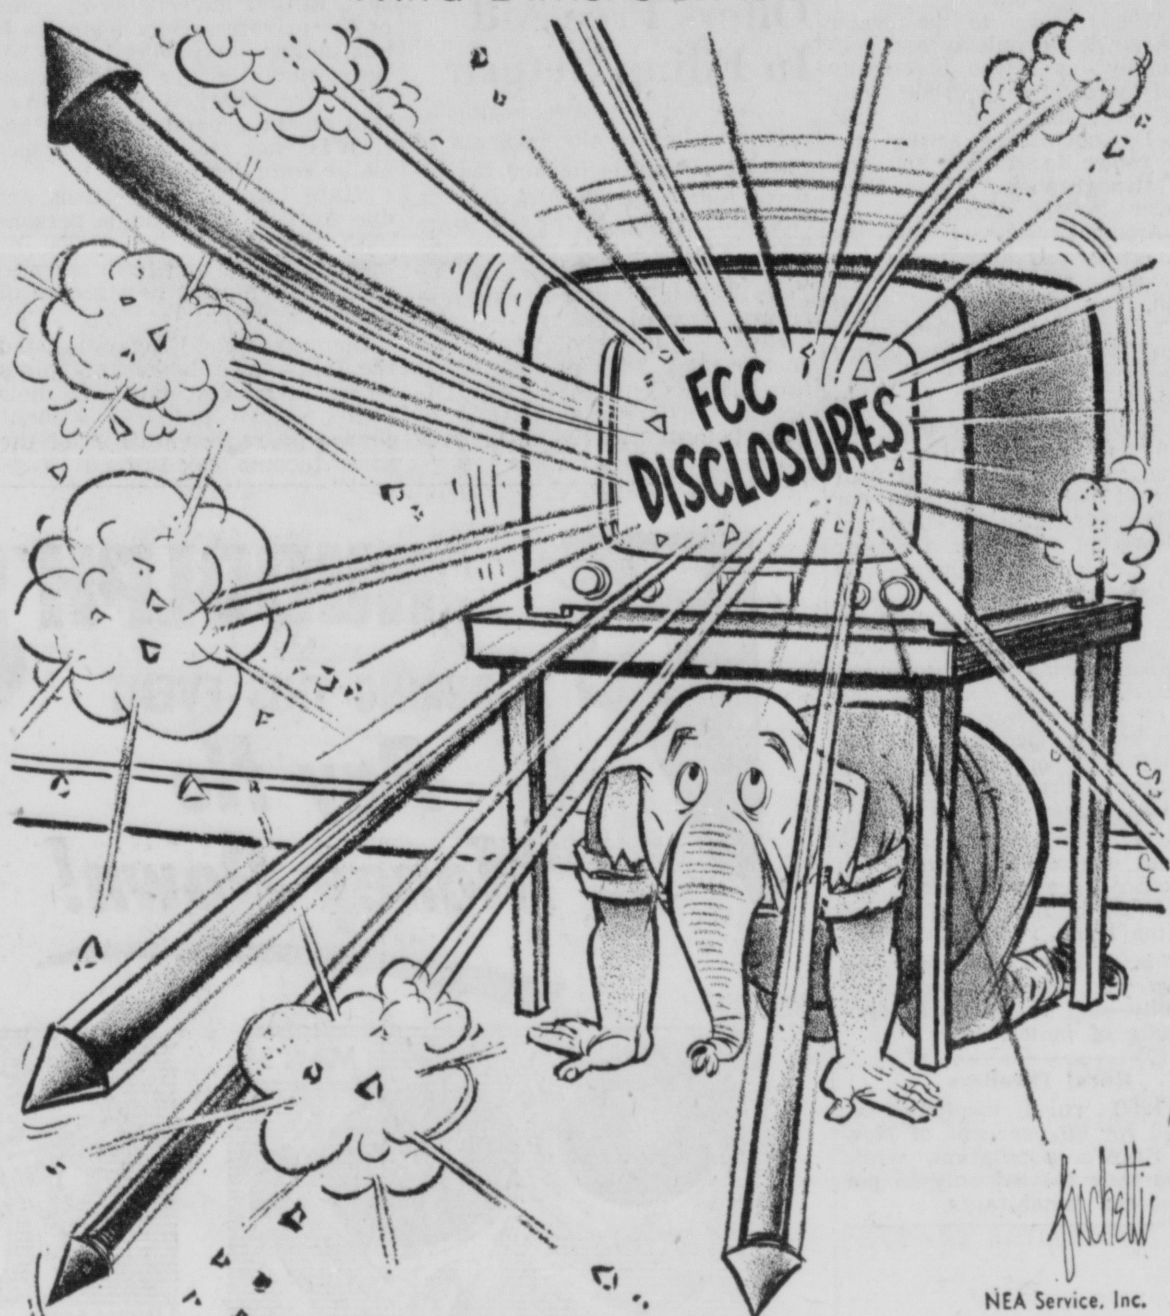

IMAGINE, for example, a 9-year-old girl who could drop her crutches to the ground and take her first steps without them.

Think of the 4-year-old who took her place at a low, round table in a special nursery school, inspected the little girl next to her and noticed that they used identical crutches. She put out a tentative hand and touched her neighbor on the arm, this being her first contact with another child in all her life!

Finally, I should like to refer interested readers to two fine booklets available through the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults (11 South La Salle Street, Chicago 3, Ill.), price 25 cents each. One of these written by Mr. Miers, is called "Why Did This Have to Happen?" and the other, by Grace Langdon, "Your Child's Play."

Even though thousands of Americans will neglect voting this year, all would fight to the last ditch any attempt to take away their right to vote.

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The question now is whether the one-day Washington conference of 1,000 citizens from all over will do any good in saving the foreign aid program.

It was unquestionably the biggest hucksterism experiment here in years.

Eric Johnston, the movie czar, arranged it at White House suggestion. Fifteen tycoons like Ernest Breech, of Ford, and Frank Pace, of General Dynamics, agreed to pick up the check for the costs. They ran about $12,000 for the day, including the free lunch addressed by ex-President Harry Truman and the evening banquet addressed by President Eisenhower.

All of the dozen speeches delivered during the day were in favor of bigger and better foreign aid, naturally.

If this oratory influences any of the 250 congressmen and 75 senators who did not attend the conference, the powwow was a success.

BUT IN A question-and-answer session right after lunch, some of the guests asked some pretty rough questions.

For instance, Warren H. Atherton, Stockton, Calif., former American Legion commander, wanted to know how come the U. S. was financing big dam construction in places like Asia and Africa, when all new starts on U. S. reclamation projects were stopped?

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, presiding, said this was a political question so he'd answer it. His full answer can't be given in this space, but in conclusion he said:

"In World War II we had no reclamation starts and nobody complained. We were fighting a war for survival then. We are doing the same now. It isn't a military war—it's an economic war. And we must make sacrifices at home now to win the war of survival launched against us."

AN ANONYMOUS rough question sent up for answer was, "What can be done to assure the American people that our foreign aid program will be conducted with greater efficiency?"

New Director of International Cooperation James H. Smith Jr. fumbled the answer to that one by saying that he had just analyzed the 69 specific criticisms against his administration. He had found only four cases in which ICA had made mistakes and 40 in which the mistakes were not the fault of U. S. personnel. He didn't go into the other 25 cases.

Vice President Nixon took it from there to save it. He cited the case of the Iranian program which has been criticized. Nixon maintained it was better to go ahead, even if there was some waste, than to stop the program and let Iran go Communist.

Clarence Mitchell of National Association for Advancement of Colored People wanted to know if the U. S. was going to continue to give foreign countries arms which could be used to kill children, as in the recent French raid in Tunisia.

Deputy Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon, in answering this, had to admit that some of the equipment used by the French in this raid was of American origin. But Dillon said there was a provision in all U. S. mutual security agreements that American arms could be used for common defense, and that the government was looking into this case further.

A 'Productive' Tax Rate Is Seen Spur to Business

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—The business situation in America has become the most important news story in the world today. It is more important than any summit conference or the launching of satellites. All Europe is anxiously watching the business trends here. For if America's economic strength is sapped by a deep depression, the Communists would be given an opportunity for victories in many parts of the globe without firing a shot.

Which way will business go? Here are three directions in which the economic curve in America may be charted in the next twelve months:

1. The declines could go deeper. The psychological effect of this might cause a mood of hesitation and reluctance to go ahead—even in businesses that are fundamentally sound.

2. There could be an upturn this summer or this autumn. A steady recovery would then ensue throughout next year.

3. There might be a sideways movement as business bumps along the bottom for a while, with no sign as to just when in 1958 the upturn would start.

The most important information that business men are eager to get now is the answer to the question: When will the bottom be reached?

March Figures to Tell

If business men were convinced, for instance, that the bottom already has been reached—as a few observers seem to think—planning could begin now with real confidence. But it takes a little while to determine whether a bottom mark has actually been recorded. Too often the weekly or monthly figures are changed by statistics the following week or month.

There must be signs of a continuous trend in order to be sure of what is happening. The February unemployment figures will become available about March 12, but the truly important figures are those for the month of March, which will not be ready for disclosure until the middle of April. If those figures show a decline in unemployment, the news will be heartening to the nation.

Unfortunately, there has been an overemphasis on unemployment figures as the sole indicator of business conditions.

For the truth is there were only 340,000 less persons at work in January, 1958, than in January, 1957. There were, however, more than 900,000 workers added to the nation's labor force in 1957, and these, together with the usual number out of jobs for personal reasons, brought the total of unemployed up to 4,500,000 in January.

Incentives Needed

What can be done to create 900,000 more jobs a year and to absorb more and more workers from the normally unemployed total? There is only one answer—incentives to business enterprises.

Lots of talk has been heard lately about how the Soviets give incentives and stimulate their scientists by special treatment. But the principle is even more significant in a free economy. Tax revision of the right kind is perhaps the most important stimulus that could be given American business of all kinds. It's the policy that performed a miracle in West Germany, just as a lack of incentives has retarded Britain's post-war recovery.

What ought to be done in America probably will not be done because there isn't yet a majority in Congress willing to take a long look ahead and plan not just for the few months of 1958 but for several years.

Prosperity—bigger than any the United States has ever experienced—would, for example, follow the passage of a measure like the bill sponsored by Representative Sadiq, of Connecticut, Republican, and Representative Herlong, of Florida, Democrat.

It would revise the whole income structure, to take effect over a five-year period, so that eventually the country would have a rate schedule ranging from 15 to 42 per cent for individual incomes and an over-all rate of 42 per cent for corporations. Referring to this bill, the First National City Bank letter, which is noted among businessmen for its down-to-earth analyses of the business situation, says:

"It is doubtful if an action Congress could take would so brighten the economic outlook and revitalize efforts to produce and sell and go ahead."

For Balanced Budget

This is echoed by Dr. Charles F. Phillips, an economist and president of Bates College. He says a plan of this kind would bring in enough revenue to keep the budget balanced.

For, by making the tax rates productive instead of restrictive, America would get more and more tax receipts from business. The new rates would encourage persons of high income to invest their savings in new enterprises. It would help all companies to build up surpluses so that they would have the money available to modernize plant and equipment.

The best way to get more tax revenues for the Federal government is to give business—which has the major task of creating jobs—a tax rate that provides a real incentive to progress and expansion. It is the road to full employment.

This is sound economics, and it could be sound politics, too. But the majority in Congress will hesitate to favor such a plan until it is backed by an overwhelming public opinion. (Reproduction Rights Reserved.)

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — Many Americans are trimming their debts today while others are taking on more.

Many are increasing their savings while others are keeping retail sales levels high.

Many are feeling the pinch of falling incomes while others are enjoying income stabilizers built up under personal protection programs.

Mixed Picture

This mixed picture of personal fortunes and of how individuals are meeting the recession is found in the national statistics when you balance one against the other.

The Federal Reserve Board, for example, issues statistics on consumer credit that are dull enough in themselves until you break them down into indicators of how people are reacting to the times.

Americans took on three billion dollars of installment credit in January. But that is less than they usually take on in that month. Much of the drop was in auto purchases—a statistic that Detroit was already sadly aware of.

In that month Americans repaid 3½ billion dollars of consumer credit. But that is less than they usually do in January. The slow down in collections seems to reflect the shrinkage in many individual incomes. Debt that was contracted in an era of overtime paychecks is coming due in an era of little or no overtime and, for many, shorter work weeks and smaller paychecks.

Few See It Dangerous

Total consumer debt (both installment and non-installment) outstanding at the end of January was 810 million dollars less than at the start of the month. But the total is 44 billion, or nearly three billion dollars more than at the same time in 1957.

Few economists believe this total is dangerous in view of the total assets, income and savings of the American people.

Most studies of how Americans must meet the recession deal with what cushions the government has provided and with what further steps it should take.

But there is a big reserve that the American people have built up on their own initiative and their own effort. Some, such as social security, is government-made but comes out of funds provided by the individual and his employer.

The Institute of Life Insurance reports that total payments from private and semi-public programs for the protection of the individual and the family now come to 25½ billion dollars a year. This is nearly nine per cent of the total personal income after taxes of 300½ billion dollars a year.

The largest single source is benefit payments from life insurance. The social security system is second in total benefit payments.

In addition to the 25½ billion dollars payments the institute tabulates, individuals have large reserve pools in other programs not included in that list.

Some of these are interest payments from U. S. savings bonds, bank accounts, savings and loan associations. Others get income from real estate and corporate securities.

A drop in payroll totals is always a big blow to the economy. But the luckier individuals have other cushions than those provided by such government sponsored devices as jobless benefits or relief rolls.

So They Say..

If we are to be successful in making space out of bounds for military purposes, we must act now while its use is in its infancy. To delay could mean horror unprecedented in the history of civilized men.

—Rep. Kenneth Keating (R-N. Y.)

The spiritual revolution has already started in the Soviet Union. . . . The Soviet rulers . . . know that a new tendency is rising among the youth in Russia, among the writers, intelligentsia, workers and peasants—a tendency to demand finally that freedom be granted. And they are going to demand freedom at any price.

—Nikolai Khokhlov, former Intelligence Officer in the Red Army.

If we find when we start bargaining that the (auto) industry can promise us a full 40 hours of work at full pay, the demand for a shorter work week will disappear.

—UAW vice president Leonard Woodcock.

I would really love to make a trip to the moon.

—Airmen Donald G. Farrell 23, at the end of his week-long "space capsule" sojourn.

The real shape of the future of the world will be decided, in the coming final decades of the century, by the evolution of the peoples of Asia and Africa, and by the role that the United States and the American people play in the course of that development.

—Gen. Carlos Romulo, Philippines ambassador to the U. S.

Ave Asks Fund To Deal With Ousted Pupils

ALBANY (AP)—Gov. Harriman today appealed to the Legislature for $375,000 in state funds to help provide facilities for troublemakers ousted from New York City schools after recent outbursts of violence.

Harriman said the money would support a special city program designed to "help the youngsters involved remain in the main educational stream."

Wholesale suspensions of New York City students followed a series of rapes, beatings, fights and destructive acts in the schools.

Special schools are being established for students weeded out. The governor said a maximum $50,000 of the proposed state aid would be for experimental programs for early detection of problem students.

Keeping the students in the city's education system would be a social gain and far less expensive than committing them to state institutions, Harriman declared.

Hall Claims Ave Uses Recession in Pitch for Votes

NEW YORK (AP)—Leonard W. Hall, former Republican national chairman, says Gov. Averell Harriman is trading on the recession "in the hope of getting votes."

Hall also says that the Democratic governor, who is seeking reelection next November, is more interested in "shouting gloom and doom" than in exerting leadership at Albany toward bettering economic conditions.

Hall, who has been mentioned as a possibility for the GOP nomination for governor this year, assailed Harriman last night in speaking at the third of the "Pulse of New York" forum series at the National Republican Club.

The series is aimed at pepping up party activity for the coming campaign, developing issues and focusing attention on possible gubernatorial candidates.

To Reveal Splendors

SAN SIMON, Calif. (AP)—Fabulous San Simon Castle, cresting a mountain top like a white crown, prepared today to reveal its long-hidden splendors to all.

For decades it has been the guarded setting of many of the world's great art treasures.

But its vaulted rooms will echo with the tramp of tourists' feet beginning May 17. By then it will be the property of the people of California, a monument to its builder, the late publisher William Randolph Hearst.

Even press photographers may not take pictures of the family quarters of the White House.

Give Lenten dishes a lift with salty—

SAUCE-'N-DIP for SEAFOOD

Combine 1 small onion (grated), 1 large cucumber (grated), 1 1/2 tsp. Sterling Salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1 tbs. chopped parsley, dash Tabasco, 1 cup thick sour cream. Mix well. Add additional herbs, if desired. Serve cold as a party dip for seafood snacks... or hot as a sauce with favorite fish. To serve hot, heat gently in top of double boiler. It's a new two-in-one idea!

Any dish has extra zest, extra flavor richness when cooked and seasoned with Sterling Salt!

• BRIDGE*Peculiar Play Assures SixBY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The student gazed at the expert with awe. "Why did you try the heart finesse before you went after the spades and how did you know enough to play the spades so peculiarly?" he asked.

"Easy," replied the expert. "I wanted to make six no-trump and I needed a total of six tricks in the major suits for my contract. If I could collect three heart tricks I would only need three in spades. Hence, I tried the heart finesse before going after the spades. When it worked my spade play was designed to win at least three spade tricks against any combination. Of course, if the heart finesse had lost I would have gone after four spade tricks."

The expert had commenced proceedings in spades by cashing the king in his own hand. Then he played the deuce of spades and when West played the seven the expert won the trick with dummy's nine.

The reader will note that the expert's play was sure to win three spade tricks against any combination of cards. Should the suit break three-two he could not lose more than one trick on any play. With the actual four-one break West was held to one spade trick. If East held four spades he would have been helpless also. West would have shown out on the second lead whereupon the expert would have gone up with dummy's ace and led back to his guarded jack.

National Easter Seal Fund Drive To Start Today

A flood of brightly colored Easter Seals goes into the mail today for delivery to 40 million American homes, opening the 1958 Easter Seal appeal.

They will be distributed in all states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico to raise funds for crippled children's services within those states and territories.

At the same time, Don Belding of Los Angeles, nationally known advertising executive and National Chairman of the Easter Seal campaign, takes off on a nationwide tour of 14 major cities on behalf of the appeal. They include Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, New Orleans, Miami, Washington, D. C., New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver.

Easter Seal Child
Mary Lynne Dunnuck, 6, the 1958 national Easter Seal child of Yuma, Ariz., will leave next week for a swing through the East for a White House visit and television and radio appearances to do her share in telling the story of crippled children in this greatest of all Easter Seal campaigns. Her tour will include visits to New York, Washington, D. C., Chicago and Denver.

"This will be our greatest Easter Seal campaign," said Mr. Belding. "We must appeal to every American to help us by contributing to the 1958 drive which continues through April 6, Easter Sunday. The need is greater than ever because the number of crippled persons is increasing steadily in the United States."

"Paradoxically, new medical discoveries that help increase the life span of people with severe handicaps, our growing birth rate, and the mounting number of crippling accidents make it necessary to expand our direct services to reach more and more crippled children and adults."

This year's nationwide appeal marks 37 years of service to the crippled by the National Society and its 1,655 Easter Seal affiliates. Approximately 90 per cent of the funds raised during the annual Easter Seal campaign finance direct services to the handicapped within the state where raised. The remainder goes to help support a national program of service, education and research.

Calculated Now

Scientists used to measure the height of a mountain by barometer readings, or by noting the boiling point of water, as they climbed toward the top. Today, measurements are established by calculations in trigonometry.

Local Death Record

Debra Lynn Brinkman

Debra Lynn Brinkman, year-old daughter of George E. and Ernestine Scism Brinkman of 108 Pearl Street, died in this city yesterday. Funeral services will be held at the A. Carr and Son Funeral Home, 1 Pearl Street, Friday 2 p. m. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9 o'clock. The remains will be placed in Wiltwyck Receiving Vault for burial later in Mt. Marion Cemetery. Besides her parents, she is survived by two sisters, Carol Ann and Georgiana, and a brother, Frederick. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lawrence Brinkman, also survive.

John H. Deegan

The funeral of John H. Deegan of 103 Henry Street who died Monday was held today at 9 a. m. from St. Joseph's Church where a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stephan P. Connelly. Responses to the Mass were sung by the children's choir accompanied by Mrs. Frank Rafferty at the organ. Numerous floral tributes as well as spiritual bouquets in the form of Mass cards were received and many friends and neighbors called at the funeral home. On Tuesday evening the Rev. Austin V. Carey called at the funeral home and on Wednesday evening the Rev. Charles P. Burke, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Saugerties, also served as an elder of the funeral home and the Rev. Alfred Glancy led a large group of relatives and friends in the recitation of the Rosary. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery where Father Glancy gave the final absolution.

John A. Barringer

John A. Barringer, 77, of Krumville, died at Kingston Hospital Wednesday after a long illness. Son of the late Thomas and Mary Elizabeth Van DeMark Barringer, he was born Sept. 20, 1880, and had resided at Krumville for 56 years. He was a member of Shokan Lodge, 491, IOOF and that lodge will hold ritualistic service Friday at 8 p. m. at H. B. Humiston Funeral Home, Kerhonkson. Mr. Barringer also served as an elder of the Krumville Reformed Church and was past president of the Krumville Cemetery Association. He was married to the late Emma Merrihew who died in 1916. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Smith of Krumville and Mrs. Lorin Hover of Krumville; a son, Lester J. Barringer of Krumville; two sisters, Mrs. Harriett Van DeMark of Kingston and Mrs. Rebecca Connelly of Poughkeepsie. Several nieces and nephews also survive. Funeral will be held from H. B. Humiston Funeral Home, Kerhonkson, Saturday at 1 p. m. with the Rev. George Wood, pastor of the Rochester Reformed Church of Accord, officiating. Burial will be in Krumville Cemetery.

John J. Hoffmann

Funeral of John J. Hoffmann, who died Saturday in this city was held Wednesday 9:30 a. m. from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home, 176 Broadway, thence to St. Mary's Church where at 10 a. m. a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Francis X. Toner. Responses to the Mass were sung by the children's choir, under the direction of Theodore Riccoboni, choirmaster. Many friends attended the Mass. During the bereavement scores of friends called at the funeral home. Among those who called were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury, PA, VF, and Father Toner. Organizations which called to pay final respects were Kingston Paid Fire Department led by Chief James M. Brett and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stephan Connelly, PR, chaplain, and the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Company, Inc., led by Battalion Chief H. Foster Winfield. The rosary was said by the Knights of Columbus, Kingston Council 275, led by Florian P. Wignert, grand knight and the Rev. James A. Dunnigan, chaplain; and the St. Mary's Holy Name Society, led by Charles A. Ryan, president and the Rev. Edward I. Farrelly, spiritual director. Many spiritual and floral bouquets were received. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery where Father Farrelly gave the final absolution and blessing. Bearers were Capt. Edwin Murphy, Joseph Miles, John Haber, Robert Schatzel, Francis Arguelewicz and Francis Coughlin, all members of the Uniformed Firemen's Association.

Photog. Lawyer In Skirmish, So Goes Story

An eager Albany photographer and a local attorney reportedly engaged in a melee around noon today, when the flash gunner tried for a shot against the wishes of the lawyer.

The action allegedly took place at 41 Pearl Street where the Capital City photog and a newsman called for comment relative to the police probe report of A. L. Reuter, acting commissioner of investigations.

All set for a shot, the news photographer was reportedly warned not to take it.

A second attempt, vexed the lawyer who allegedly made a grab for the camera. Then, he said, the flash boy struck at him with the camera.

The incident ended, it was reported, with the lawyer putting the photographer out of the office.

Company Official Avers Pine Hill System 'Not Poor'

A Pine Hill Water Company official today took exception to published statements describing the system as "being in poor condition," and said that higher fire insurance rates in the Village of Pine Hill are inevitable whether the system is privately or municipally owned.

In another of many statements released in the Pine Hill Water Company controversy in recent weeks, Robert C. Schaefer, superintendent and treasurer of the company said that newspaper reports quoting village officials "that the water system is in poor condition, are not correct."

Junk: Griffin
Pine Hill Mayor Charles Griffin has repeatedly described the system as "a piece of junk."

The cost of relocating pipes of the system is holding up the $7,000,000 highway construction job on Route 28. The water company does not wish to assume the cost of relocating its pipes. However if the water company were owned by the village, the state would be obliged to pay for the job of realigning the water mains.

The latest offering price for the water company holdings is $42,000 which Mayor described as "still too high."

Schaefer's statement follows: "The prime purpose of a water company is to render water service to its consumers. This has been done for about 65 years by the Pine Hill Water Company. This past summer is ample proof that the system is efficient, which consumers appreciate, and to which many will testify."

"This past summer, the driest in 125 years, not one consumer was without water for one day due to insufficient supply. Meanwhile, all over the Catskill region wells ran dry and springs that had never been dry before, failed to produce."

"The Pine Hill system was one of the very few mountain spring-fed, unchlorinated systems that held up through the 1957 drought. In fact, two of the largest hotels in the village in late July, when their own springs were insufficient, connected to the water system. They were kept supplied with plenty of water from the system and were thereby able to keep open and bring plenty of life and activity to the village. Pine Hill has always been famous for its pure mountain spring water."

Called System Poor
"In 1953 the New York Fire Insurance Rating Organization inspected the water system and said that the fire protection afforded by the system was poor. This was based on pressures and flow required by present-day fire pumps. The Rating Bureau wants larger mains, disregarding the large Funck Lake and the many brooks and pools which are also available for fire protection purposes."

"In order to comply with the Rating Bureau's demand, it would cost well over $100,000. There is little likelihood that this can be complied with, regardless of whether the system is privately or municipally owned. An insurance rate increase is inevitable in either instance."

"The Rating Bureau has uprated many neighboring villages, Hunter, Andes and Deposit have recently been uprated. Rhinebeck has thousands of feet of four inch main in its streets."

State Would Help
If the Pine Hill water system were municipally owned, or owned by a water district, the State Highway Department will make a gift of $22,500 to the people of Pine Hill by relocating the small portion of four inch main. That is the reason the board of directors of The Pine Hill Water Company approved offering the system to the village at the very low price of $42,500."

"Up to the present the only individuals who have competently appraised the water system have been the company's engineers. Their appraisal at depreciated net reproduction value is $120,460, almost three times the offering price. A suggestion has been made that the village engage the services of a competent appraiser to justify the reasonableness of the present offering price."

"At present the company is awaiting the setting of a date by the village trustees for an official hearing and a referendum. The company will gladly make available at any time the advice and counsel of its engineers at no expense to the taxpayers."

The New York governor, lieutenant governor, comptroller and attorney general all serve four-year terms.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—A pickup in demand for steels, oils and rails accompanied a pretty good stock market rise early this afternoon. Moderately active turnover pushed key stocks ahead fractions to well over a point.

The rise, while not sensational, was stronger than recent moves to the upside. The market was riding a four-day winning streak and bid fair to make it No. 5.

Good earnings reports from oil firms, higher copper prices abroad and reassurance that the administration plans to combat the recession formed the news background.

The heavy short interest proved a technical boost as shorts moved to cover their positions and prevent loss.

Leading rails continued their technical recovery of yesterday, joining the industrials in the advance and giving the market a sounder tone.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 80 cents to $161.70 with the industrials up $1.00, the rails up $1.60 and the utilities unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices advanced in moderate trading. Corporate bonds rallied after a two-day slump. Trading was fairly active.

Long range U. S. government bonds improved in over the counter dealings.

Reds Shoot Down Jet in Korea; 26 Are Freed

OSAN, Korea (AP)—Communist batteries shot down an American Sabre jet near the Korean truce line today and the pilot reportedly parachuted "just over the Communist side of the line." Meanwhile the North Koreans released two American pilots and 24 others from a South Korean airliner hijacked 18 days ago.

The first brief Air Force announcement on the jet fighter did not say whether the pilot who bailed out was seen to hit the ground safely.

Pilot Bails Out

A second F86 accompanying the downed Sabre returned to its base. The pilot reported he "saw the lead aircraft get hit and crash, and then momentarily saw a parachute with the (first) pilot floating toward the ground just over the Communist side of the line."

The two Sabres were on a low-level simulated ground support mission about 65 miles northeast of Seoul. Under standing orders they are forbidden to fly over the 2 1/2-mile-wide demilitarized zone that stretches across the peninsula separating North from South Korea.

The Air Force announcement did not make clear whether the pilot came down over the Communist half of the zone or in North Korea.

The Air Force withheld the names of both pilots and began an investigation together with the U. N. Command.

The 26 returnees, who also included a West German businessman, his wife and 22 South Koreans, were turned over at the Panmunjom truce headquarters after allied representatives gave the Communists receipts for them.

Get Medical Checkup

The 26 were taken by bus to the U. N. base camp in the neutral zone for medical checkup. The two American pilots of the Sabre, Willis P. Hobbs of Vallejo, Calif., and Air Force Lt. Col. Howard W. McClellan of Buchanan, Mich., appeared in perfect health and smiled broadly as they climbed aboard the U. N. bus.

Eight Koreans from the airliner remained in North Korea.

The U. N. Command said they apparently were the seven "Red" agents the South Koreans charged with taking over the plane and the child of one of them. The Korean National Airlines plane was on a regular flight from Pusan to Seoul when it flew north.

New Hurley

NEW HURLEY—During the services in the New Hurley Reformed Church Sunday morning the following were baptized: Kurt Norman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nelson; and William Jeffrey and Mark Richard, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powell.

There will be preaching services in the New Hurley Reformed Church Sunday, 11 a. m. and Sunday school in the church hall, 10 a. m. with classes for all ages.

The union Lenten services will be held in the Walkill Reformed Church Sunday, 8 p. m. with the Rev. Lester Alberts, a former pastor of the Shawangunk Reformed Church, as speaker.

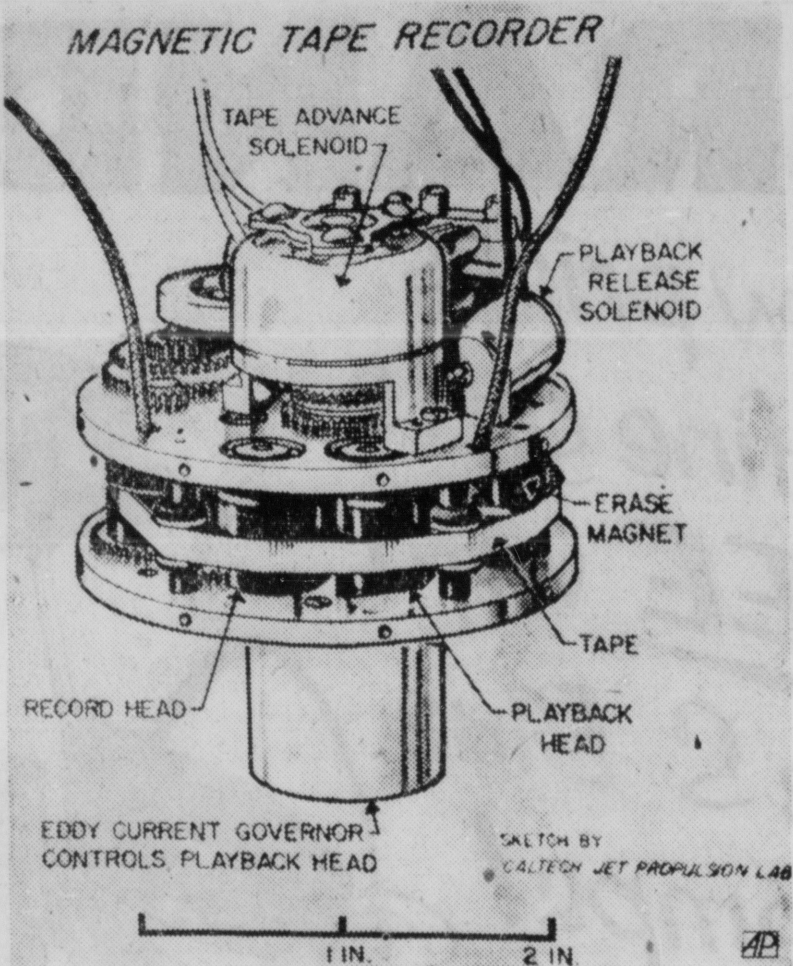

The Missionary Society will meet at the New Hurley Church Hall Thursday, March 13, 2:30 p. m.

Doctor With Grace

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Dr. Pierre Hervet arrived at the Monaco royal palace today to be in constant readiness for the birth of a second child to Princess Grace and Prince Rainier.

The Paris specialist, who delivered Princess Caroline, told a palace spokesman he thinks the baby will arrive between the 10th and 15th closer to the 15th.

In Public Schools Church Council Against Posting 10 Commandments

ALBANY (AP)—The State Council of Churches, influential Protestant organization, today urged legislators to defeat a bill that would allow the Ten Commandments to be posted in public schools.

In a memorandum, the council said the bill violated the doctrine of separation of church and state and "would create sectarian division."

Last year, the state education commissioner ordered the New Hyde Park school district on Long Island not to post an "interdenominational" version of the commandments in its classrooms.

He said he based his decision on the "divisiveness, ill feeling and unwholesome controversy" the commandments had raised in the district.

District residents had complained that the interdenominational version of the commandments differed from the versions subscribed to by various faiths and therefore were offensive to some.

A bill introduced by Sen. Thomas J. Cuite of Brooklyn and Assemblyman William E. Brennan of Kew Gardens, both Democrats, would give school boards the right to post the commandments. The bill includes an interdenominational version of an example.

Cuite said this version had been approved by Protestant ministers, Catholic priests and Jewish rabbis.

However, the Council of Churches said the wording of the commandments in the bill was "not commonly accepted; reflects one religious point of view; and, while titled 'The Ten Commandments,' actually contains eleven."

Sam Makes Good

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A portrait of Sam Pierce, who was born in New Orleans just seven years after his parents were freed from slavery, was hung recently at the Wisconsin Historical Society building among those of other state notables.

Pierce was executive messenger to five Wisconsin governors. He died in 1936.

Crowd Seeks Bodies

IZMIT, Turkey (AP)—A crowd of men waving shrouds staged a protest demonstration yesterday after the government announced the end of the search for victims of the sinking of the ferry Uskudar last Saturday.

"We want the bodies of our children," shouted the crowd. The government had reported 146 bodies were recovered from the sunken hulk. Gov. Ekmeleddin Celal said more might be missing.

The demonstrators claimed the ferry still held the bodies of many more victims.

Officials said it was impossible to determine how many lives were lost since ticket sales for the Uskudar had been mixed up with those for other ferries.

A transport ministry investigating commission has denied the ferry was overloaded. Its capacity was 345 persons.

Funds of Acting Utica Chief Are Under Scrutiny

ALBANY (AP)—The financial affairs of Utica's acting police chief were under scrutiny today following an open raking from the Legislature's watchdog committee.

James A. Laino testified yesterday that a trucking company run by his brothers had lent him $18,496 in the last six years. Of the total, he said, he still owed $9,474 to the company, Nick Laino Sons, which holds the garbage-collecting contract in Utica.

Protests Check

Laino, who took over the scandal-ridden department following the recent application for retirement of Chief Leo F. Miller and the resignation of Deputy Chief Vincent D. Fiore, testified publicly despite the objections of his attorney. The attorney protested that the committee, investigating crime and vice in Utica, already had combed Laino's records in executive session Feb. 25.

Laino said he received these loans from Nick Laino Sons: $2,739 in 1952; $3,867 in 1953; $4,424 in 1954; $1,734 in 1955; $582 in 1956, and $5,150 last year.

The money, Laino said, was used for personal expenses, such as automobile insurance.

Laino said it was his practice always to carry $500 to $600 on his person.

Third Under Scrutiny

The probe of Laino's affairs made him the third member of the department's top brass to undergo investigation on finances. Following a probe of Miller's affairs, acting State Investigation Commissioner Arthur L. Reuter reported on Feb. 14 that Miller had told him he kept a box containing $10,000 in a dresser drawer at home.

Miller later said he had deposited the money in a bank, adding that he had accumulated the fund "through conservative, clean living."

Fiore resigned Feb. 11 and denied to reporters that he harvested protection money from prostitution and racketeering.

Reuter declined to estimate the amount of hidden funds allegedly involved in Fiore's case but made it plain that the resignation hinged on Fiore's finances.

After questioning Laino yesterday, the watchdog committee adjourned its Utica probe to an unspecified future date.

Saugerties Dart League Meeting To Plan Banquet

Arrangements for the annual banquet, the series final and play-off games will be discussed at a meeting of Saugerties Dartball League Wednesday, March 12 in Centerville Methodist Church parish hall at 7:30 p. m.

The annual banquet and Saugerties Dartball world series for the league trophy will be held Monday, May 5 at a place to be decided at the meeting.

According to George Jorgenson, league president, rules of the play-offs will be reviewed and special arrangements made in the event of ties in the standings.

The second, third, fourth and fifth teams in the final standings are matched in the play-offs with the victor meeting the 1958 pennant winner in the series for the league trophy.

Contenders who may have been playing regularly scheduled games with less than nine men must be prepared to play nine or more in any play-off game or the series, Jorgenson warned.

Strike Is Crippling

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Transportation was crippled in this capital today by a strike called to force President Herman Siles to remain in office.

Siles resigned earlier this week because labor leader Juan Lechin objected to an austerity program aimed at improving Bolivia's economy. Congress has not acted on the resignation.

Thirteen unions opposed to Lechin's organization said they will stay out until Siles withdraws the resignation. Among the strikers are rail workers and taxi drivers.

Why We Say

WHITE COLLAR WORKERS

DOCTORS: We call professional people and office workers "white collar" workers today. The expression started when medicine became a respected profession and doctors began to wear white collars as part of their uniforms.

The bride looked dejected as the meal drew to a close. Bride—I was going to have sponge cake for dessert, dear, but somehow it didn't come out right.

Husband—Gee, and that's my favorite cake. What happened to it?

Bride—I can't imagine, unless perhaps the store sent me the wrong kind of sponges.

Salesman—I've been trying to see you for over a week. When may I have an appointment?

Executive—Make a date with my secretary.

Salesman—I did, and we had a wonderful time, but I still want to see you.

A father and his little son were gazing into a tailor's shop window.

Father—Now, Willie, I am going to buy you a new pair of trousers, and you shall choose them. Which pair do you want?

Willie (after a moment's hesitation)—Please, father may I have the pair marked "Cannot be beaten."

They also found a note: "Hard safe to crack."

Do You Remember by Sophie Mille.

I certainly appreciate when someone runs across old local newspaper items which are dated and take the trouble to send them to me. Here is another one from the several Mrs. William F. Hasbrouck of Stone Ridge sent the other day.

Very often papers of local history are read by members of such groups as the DAR and much research is done for that one reading. Many of them have new and valuable information, from time to time I do get some for use for this column. This is from a newspaper clipping of such two papers by Mrs. Charles Preston and DeWitt Roosa which were read before a meeting of the Wiltwyck Chapter, DAR more than a quarter of a century ago.

The following in part from Mrs. Preston's paper on Rondout: "Commencing with that part known as Ponckhockie at the junction of Rondout Creek and the Hudson River. What we know as Kingston Point was formerly Columbus Point, and Hendrik Hudson is said to have landed here in 1609 and established a trading post in 1615. It is the place that the British landed at when they came up the river to burn the rebel town of 'Sopus, so the inhabitants were obliged to 'lope to Hurley."

Items further reads: "The British landed in two divisions, one with about 400 men in the Rondout Creek at the Cantine dock; the other division in the cove about Columbus Point. (Schoonmaker's History of Kingston, page 297.) In early days it was the landing place of boats. It had two hotels, one of stone and one of wood. The stone hotel was kept by Judson Norris, who succeeded Mr. Rutzner.

It was said, "that the frame hotel was where the ice house usually stands, when not burned down and was kept by a man named Anderson. When this was taken down it was set up in two parts, one at the junction of Rogers and Division Streets, the other part at the corner of Spring and Hone Streets." Perhaps readers know more about this.

The item further stated: "In early days four sloops carried the freight and passengers. Two left Rondout Creek on Fridays and two left New York the same day. It took two or more days to make the trip. Passengers were known to go ashore and pick berries, etc., when the sloops were being loaded. Passengers were carried in better fashion after 1820 when steamers appeared. A story is told of a small boy, residing on the banks of the creek when the channel was near the shore who called, 'Ma! Ma! come see the wagon go through the river without horses!' when he saw his first side-wheeler."

The item further reads: "On the road leading to the docks there used to be a wooden bridge over what we children were told was a bottomless pit, as what was dumped there one day was out of sight the next. Now it is a good solid road with swamp flowers on either side." Just exactly where this location is I do not know, perhaps some folks of Ponckhockie would know.

Later this item states that much of the information came from Gilead Smith, and item continues in part: "The Thomas Powell, predecessor of the now extinct, 'Queen of the Hudson,' landed her passengers at Columbus Point. Stages also ran from Columbus Point to Ellenville."

Night Life

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — An instructor at Rutgers University's School of Agriculture says that night lighting of plants may change their flowering, growth, dormancy habits—and life span.

Roy H. DeBoer, an assistant instructor of landscape design, said that if night-lit plants go into winter in a soft and tender condition, chances of severe winter-kill are increased.

The World Today

Word 'Act' Vital
In Agreement
On DisabilityBy JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is an A-B-C on the agreement between President Nixon for the latter to act as president if Eisenhower becomes too disabled to carry out his duties.

Because, as Eisenhower said, the two men have faith in each other, Nixon will decide whether Eisenhower—if unable to speak for himself—is too disabled to act as President. Then Nixon will act for him. The word "act" in all this is important.

Won't Take Oath

Nixon won't take the oath of office as president. He will not become president. He will turn the job back to Eisenhower if the latter recovers, Eisenhower, not Nixon, will decide whether the president's disability has ended.

The two men have made it clear this agreement is meant to apply to them only, not to future presidents and vice presidents. Why was the agreement made at all? For several reasons.

The constitution is vague on just how a vice president takes over from a disabled president. It doesn't, for instance, say who decides on the president's disability. It doesn't say who decides when a president is no longer disabled. It simply says that in case of presidential disability the vice president will take over the presidential duties and powers and "act" for the president until he recovers or a new president is elected.

Some Disagreement

It doesn't say the vice president shall become president or that he must take the presidential oath. Is the agreement constitutional? Some — including House Speaker Rayburn, Texas Democrat — disagree.

Rayburn argues that a vice president who attempts to carry out the presidential duties must take the oath of office as president and, once he has done so, the elected but ailing president is out of office.

But Atty. Gen. Rogers considers the agreement constitutional. He argues against the need for the vice president to take the oath of the presidency or that when he does the old president is finished.

In support of his argument he points to the lack of such a requirement in the constitution as it stands. He says the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement is in keeping with the constitutional language.

It simply says Nixon will act for Eisenhower and, without requiring a presidential oath from the vice president, it says Eisenhower will resume the presidential duties when he's able.

No Fear as Usurper

Eisenhower has made clear the reason for the agreement: his worry that in a moment of national crisis he might be disabled and there'd be confusion and disagreement over how Nixon would take over the duties required of the head of government.

This agreement will also save Nixon embarrassment. Because it's all laid down in writing, he can take over from a disabled Eisenhower without fear of being called a usurper.

There's another reason for what Eisenhower and Nixon did: Congress has failed to act to clear up the present constitutional uncertainty.

The Mature Parent

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Making Child Wait for Decisions Is Not Harmful

As soon as 14-year-old Lynn came in from school, she started complaining about her weekly allowance.

It appeared that she and Jan Wells had stopped in a drugstore on their way home. It was having a One-Cent Sale. For the price of one container of talcum powder plus the extra penny, Jan had got two containers.

She'd been horrified to learn that Lynn couldn't afford the bargain. As to Lynn herself, she thought it was cruel to be asked to manage on 75 cents a week. What was going to be done about it?

Her mother did not say, "Ask your father when he comes home." Instead, beginning a long, defensive protest, she said, "When I was your age, I got 15 cents a week and was glad . . ."

She's one of many mothers who find it hard to refer a child's problem to her father.

Somewhere we've been made afraid of the phrase, "Ask your father." Perhaps we associate it with that "bad" mother of the child psychology books—the one who says, "Just wait till your father gets home and I tell him what you did."

As we've been told she keeps her children in dangerous suspense, we fear to resemble her. As a result, we try to avoid referring any discipline problem to our husbands. To protect children against all suspense, we feel obliged to come up with all decisions ourselves no matter how unqualified we are to make them.

Now the experts who disapprove of asking children to wait for their fathers' decisions accuse us of usurping fathers' authority.

It is, of course, absurd to try and protect children against suspense. So I remind you that the experts who condemn it as harmful do so out of long experience with the harmful kind. Because they have been closely involved with troubled children whose parents have kept them in states of prolonged nervous tension, they see all childish experience of suspense as destructive.

It is not. Suspense is a condition of life. We have to learn to wait for many things, including fathers' decisions.

If Lynn knows us to be reasonable, unvindictive parents, we do no injury by asking her to wait for her father's decision on increasing her allowance.

To our healthy child, we simply give a little training in patience. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

Deer Takes Cue

SCHENECTADY (AP)—Matt Erschen and two other workmen this week were holding a 7-by-10-foot plate glass ready for installation in a cigar store. Suddenly they saw a deer bounding up the sidewalk toward them.

The men frantically waved at the animal and tried to swing. Apparently the deer took the cue because he circled the big glass—and crashed through a 5-by-6-foot window on the other side of the building.

Chill a mixture of several soft cheeses and shape into a ball; then roll in toasted nuts before serving with apple slices and crackers.

Vehicle Bureau
Lists Suspension
And Revocations

Local driver license and motor vehicle registration revocations and suspensions for major causes during the first half of February were listed today by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Joseph P. Kelly.

They are: William Thomas Dalton, 22, of Box 255, High Falls, two speeds and one misdemeanor, license revoked for conviction of third violation committed within 18 months.

Jimmie McKoy, 32, Highland, license revoked for conviction of leaving the scene of accident.

Robert Cooper, 27, of LeFever Falls Road, Rosendale, license revoked for conviction of driving without proof of insurance.

Henry Hoffman, 71, of Box 136, Kerhonkson, license revoked for failure in re-examination.

Dennis P. Wieder, 16, of Mt. Marion, junior operator license suspended for violation 20-4, learners permit, pending hearing; Raymond E. Christians, 17, of 64 Smith Avenue, junior license suspended for speeding, pending hearing; Harold J. Ave-Bannigan Rift
Apparent Despite
Two Side Denials

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY (AP)—Despite public denials from both sides, there's a wide, wide rift between Gov. Harriman and his party's Assembly floor leader, Eugene Bannigan.

Persons close to the two Democratic chieftains and old hands on Capitol Hill have known about the rupture.

So, when the antagonism was flaunted Monday night in Assembly debate over legislative payroll practices, they were surprised only by its violence.

Rides With GOP

Instead of defending the governor, Bannigan rode along with the Republicans who criticized Harriman for telling the lawmakers they should improve their payroll procedures.

Reporters felt the situation so unusual that they asked Bannigan whether he felt he should surrender his leader's post.

"Are you crazy?" Bannigan shouted. "I've got the best job in the state and I'm going to keep it."

When Harriman, in turn, was asked whether he wanted Bannigan to quit, the answer was a crisp "no"—nothing more.

The curtness of this reply was eloquent. Political allies usually let no opportunity pass to drench one another with praise.

Not Always Strained

Relations between Harriman and Bannigan were not always strained.

In the early days of the Harriman administration, in 1955, Bannigan was considered something of a "fair-haired boy" in the executive chamber.

A big, jovial Irishman with great Gaelic charm, he was a frequent and welcome visitor to the executive mansion.

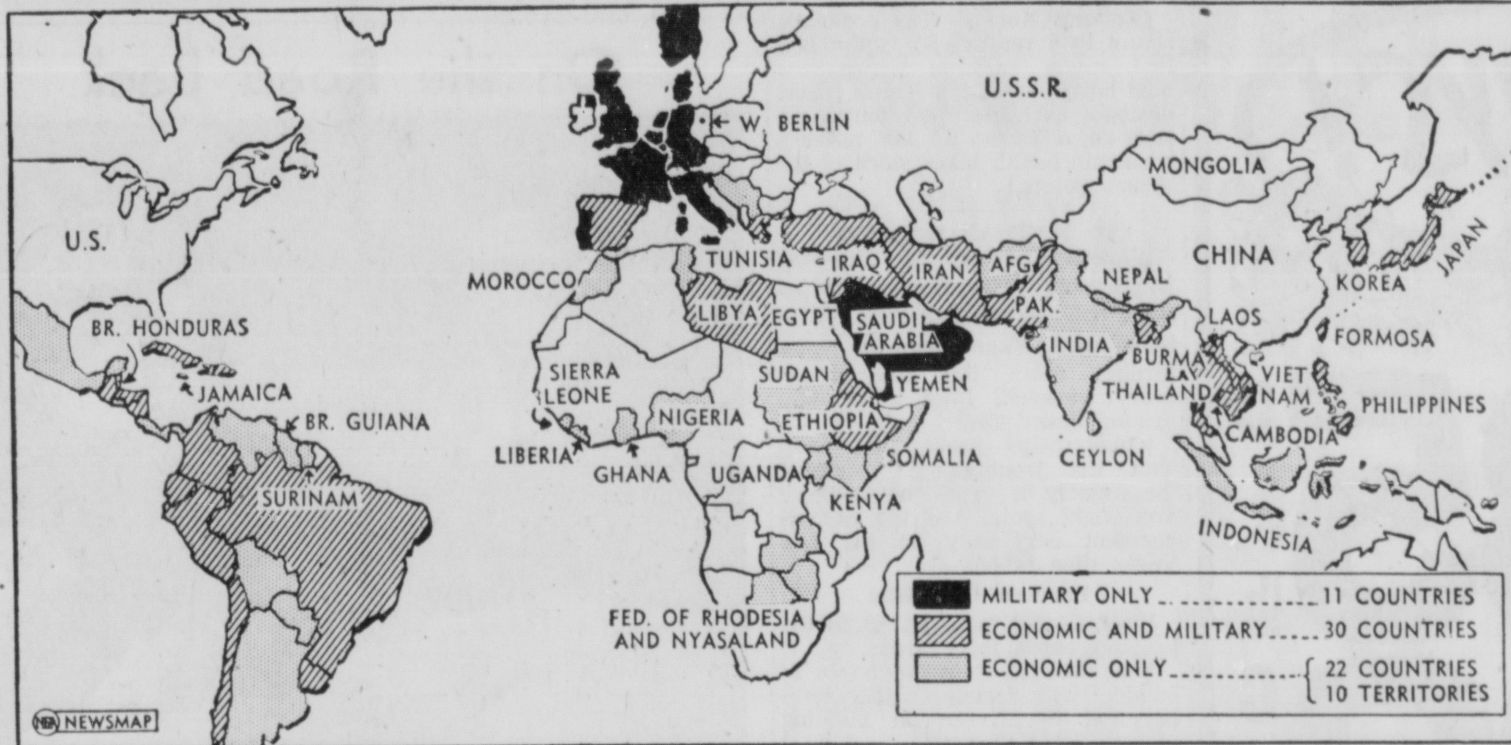

But the honeymoon didn't last long. Why the friendship began to cool is largely Harriman's and Bannigan's secret, but the rift began the following year.

There is no doubt, however, that Bannigan, after being his own boss during the Republican Dewey administration, resented the sudden flow of orders from the governor's office.

GOP Taunts Difficult

On occasion, Harriman ordered the Democratic minority to vote against major bills that he later signed. Example: The Republiabout 500 million dollars more than the lawmakers approved last year. As in previous years, two-thirds of the amount would be for military aid. Economic and technical assistance, contributions to United Nations programs, administrative costs and an emergency fund make up the balance. If approved, the U. S. will have spent 46.6 billion dollars since 1950 on program.

U.S. AID COVERS THE GLOBE—Newsmap, above, shows the nations and territories slated to receive economic and military assistance from the U.S. under President Eisenhower's proposed foreign aid (Mutual Security) program for the fiscal year beginning July 1. In his recent message to Congress, the President requested an appropriation of 3.9 billion dollars—

CP Backs Bill
Aimed to Aid
Handicapped

A resolution aimed at the creation of a joint legislative committee to study the problems of the physically handicapped has been endorsed by United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County, Inc., it was announced today.

The cerebral palsy group noted that there is a similar committee dealing with the mentally handicapped of New York State and indicated such a committee for the physically handicapped "could accomplish much in the physical, social and vocational rehabilitation of the state's physically handicapped."

Big Step Forward

Attorney Hubert H. Richter, legislative chairman of the local CP unit, said the resolution is an important step forward and its passage would give the Legislature an instrument for preparing and developing a comprehensive program of rehabilitation, treatment and services to every citizen "in our state who suffers a physical disability."

Result of Conferences

Assemblyman Edward J. Amann Jr., of Staten Island, who introduced the resolution, said the proposal is the result of a series of conferences with the majority leaders of the Senate and Assembly, and with representatives of the United Cerebral Palsy Association of the state.

Bill Has Dual Purpose

Assemblyman Amann said the resolution had a dual purpose, one to make the initial study and the other to set up an overall commission that "would eliminate patchwork programs for the handicapped."

He stressed that the ultimate appointment of a commission would be an economical move in that it would eliminate the necessity for a number of similar committees created to study specific conditions pertaining to the handicapped.

The resolution calls for a committee of 10, including the commissioners of health, mental hygiene, social welfare and education. It seeks an appropriation of $50,000.

cans' 40-million-dollar income tax reduction bill of 1956.

GOP taunts were difficult to bear.

Bannigan landed on the gubernatorial carpet last year when a New York City newspaper revealed his Brooklyn law firm was employed by a bank that was a principal supporter of a bank bill Bannigan was sponsoring.

The veteran lawmaker denied any impropriety in an emotional speech that wrung a standing ovation from Republican and Democratic assemblymen alike.

This year, things seemed to be going well enough—until newspapers began probing the legislative payroll. It developed that some politician-employees were drawing unusually high salaries.

Who was top man? Bannigan's counsel, Saul Kaplan, at $35,608. Bannigan hastily defended Kaplan. He said Kaplan was worth every penny.

Changes on Salary Later, however, after a chat with Harriman, Bannigan endorsed a statement declaring no legislative employee should be paid more than $20,000.

Then, on Monday night, Harriman sent the Legislature a special message urging the lawmakers to tighten payroll policies.

Bannigan had not been consulted on this move. He was angry. "Only a blind man," he told the Assembly, "would not know that legislative leaders were acting on the problem, since all developments were reported in the newspapers."

The growing rift now yawned wide.

Would Give Option

ALBANY (AP)—A bill that would allow larger communities without permanent personal registration to adopt the system on their own is before the Senate.

The measure, introduced by Robert J. Feinberg, Plattsburgh Republican, was passed unanimously yesterday by the Assembly. It would give the option to cities and villages with 5,000-or-over population.

Storm Emergency Off

ALBANY (AP)—A state of emergency, in effect since a blizzard struck the state last month, has been called off in Albany, Schoharie and Montgomery counties. Civil Defense personnel are released from active duty under the action taken yesterday.

Named for Brother
New York state was named by King Charles II, of England, for his brother, the Duke of York, when he ordered New Netherlands taken from the Dutch in 1664.

First Settlers
New Hampshire first was settled in 1623, just three years after the landing of the Pilgrims. The settlement was made at Oronoke's Point, now the town of Rye.

Lent to Russia
During World War II, the United States lent Russia 585 naval craft, including frigates and ice-breakers. In addition, 121 merchant vessels were sent to Russia under lend-lease.

Survey Reveals Bright Spots in Nation

Strong Points Showing in Sectors That Indicate Better Times Coming

(Editor's Note — The economic slump is a reality. So is the fact that many sections across the land have barely felt it and report business excellent. This fourth article of a series on the nation's economic health takes stock of the strong points.)

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON — "Business is no good," says the operator of a big hotel on the Las Vegas gambling strip. "Last year we were turning down 500 reservations every weekend. Now we're only turning down 400."

Which helps prove that even with the troublesome recession the country is experiencing there are bright spots. And the encouragement isn't only on the Las Vegas dice tables.

Farmers Optimistic
It's reflected in optimism in the long-depressed farm areas. You also see it in the hopes of builders with spring weather coming and the freeze on building money credit thawing.

You find buoyancy, too, in the boom towns near missile bases like Cape Canaveral, Fla., and Redstone Arsenal at Huntsville, Ala., the government's vast atomic works in New Mexico, and the missile fuel factories in Texas.

It's apparent in many areas across the land which have barely felt the recession and report business as good or better than their top levels of prosperity, or only a little off.

Idle, His Chin Up
President Eisenhower isn't the only one with a chin-up outlook. Take Bob Conroy, 38, one of Detroit's jobless army. He and his wife both lost their jobs in early December. They and their two children are living on hopes, state jobless benefits payments and two basement freezers filled with food.

"We're living," said Conroy. "We'll get along. I think in a few months something ought to happen. I got a deer during the hunting season last fall and froze the carcass. That's helped."

In Florida, where migrant field hands idled by the crop freezes are being fed in soup kitchens, business is booming on the state's west coast. There has been an influx of plant construction workers and "snowbirds," the winter vacationers from the north.

Buffalo Looks Ahead
A survey of 444 firms by the Chamber of Commerce at Buffalo, N. Y., showed 84 per cent expect business to equal or exceed last year. About one-fourth expect to expand employment this year.

There's an almost unanimous view the country isn't headed for a major depression.

In Chicago, Robert C. Tyson, finance chairman of U. S. Steel Corp., said two factors alone should prevent any repeat of 1929. Then, he said, we had a highly speculative stock market financed on thin margins with borrowed money. Now, he said, the bulk of stock market holdings are self-financed.

Tyson's second reason: "Home mortgage practice has shifted from lump sum, short maturity loans, to monthly amortized, 20-

On the Road Back

For a coal miner whose home was badly damaged in last year's Kentucky floods, this is the first stride on the road back to normal living. A Red Cross worker interviews him to determine the help he will need for repairs and replacement of house furnishings. In last year's Appalachian flood relief operation, 9,560 families got long-term aid from the Red Cross.

30-year obligations, more like rent. Much of the debt is also guaranteed or insured by the government."

Jobless Pay Big Help
Other businessmen now are paying tribute to the unemployment compensation part of the social security system. An eight billion dollar insurance pool is being tapped by the nearly 5 million jobless to make sure they don't starve or go homeless. This keeps them in the market as buyers, to some extent at least.

Also, for those rightly worried about the present shortage of jobs, particularly in the nation's factories, there is the encouraging word from many economists that there will be plenty of work — and pay — for all.

Worries Fading
It's odd, but two of the sectors that worried the economists most last year — farming and construction — now are improving and carrying much of the hopes for pulling the country up again.

The big story in farming is the broken drought. The wheat and cattle farmers in Kansas, Iowa and Idaho, Missouri and Kansas, Nevada and New Mexico, Oklahoma and the Dakotas, have stars in their eyes again.

Nebraska, coming out of a bumper crop year after a series of bad ones, counted a 43 per cent hike in crop dollar values which gave the state's farmers 200 million dollars more to spend.

Construction, a laggard in 1957, is looking up. Various government moves have eased money availability.

Home builders in many areas started clearing sites even before early February snows melted away, getting ready for cement pouring, bricklaying, plastering. If you want to look on the bright side consider that baby sitters are easier to get. Ditto guys to shovel snow off your driveway.

Doubts Dam Plan For Flood Control

LITTLE VALLEY — The Cataraugus County Board of Supervisors says it doubts that the proposed dam on the Allegheny River at Kinzua, Pa., is really meant for flood control.

The board created a 7-man special committee last night to tour the site for an on-the-spot study. In the resolution creating the committee, the board said "if the true facts were known to Congress, it is doubtful the dam would be constructed."

Individual supervisors said the main support for the dam came from Pennsylvania communities seeking pollution control along the river.

They said industries in these communities dump toxic residues into the river and were seeking a steady flow of water to carry it away.

In its resolution, the board said the dam would destroy the river's beauty and work a hardship on hundreds of Seneca Indian residents.

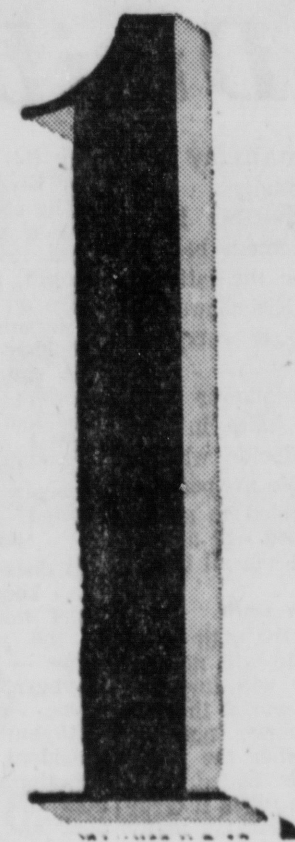

Unlike ordinary cast iron, ductile iron can be bent or twisted without breaking.

Sorry He Nabbed Him

DETROIT — Julius Blase caught a burglar taking $150 out of a dresser drawer when he returned home last night, and he wishes he hadn't caught him.

Blase, 66, told police the burglar took his wallet containing another $150, the day's receipts from his flower shop.

Democrats Plan Political Education Day For May 10 Featuring Panels, Workshops

More than 30 enthusiastic Democratic women, representing all parts of Ulster County met in Kingston Tuesday, March 4 to plan their Fifth Annual Day of Political Education for Democrats scheduled for Saturday, May 10.

Meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel, which will also be the site of the "Day", the delegates from Ulster County Democratic groups were greeted by Mrs. Harriet Allen Kerr of New Paltz, Democratic State Committeewoman and general chairman of the event.

Stressing that this annual affair is no longer of primary interest only to women since it has attracted the attendance of large numbers of men and is of widespread interest in surrounding counties, Mrs. Kerr urged attention to the crucial issues of this election year. Noting that many county officers will be elected in November along with a Governor and United States Senator, Mrs. Kerr said: "In this time of recession, it is more than ever necessary that people know the facts about our national, state and county affairs. The Day of Political Education will present the facts."

The event will be organized around panels and workshops and highlighted with a luncheon to be addressed by prominent figures. Mayor Catherine O'Leary of Rosendale will serve as chairman of the luncheon program.

Other committee chairmen and members designated are:

Program Committee—Mrs. Irma Coty of Wawarsing, chairman; Mrs. Jeannette Kelly, Mrs. Madeline Cole of Kingston; try out the new styles, the dress industry has shut up shop. Workshops piled high with Easter orders are deserted. Shipments of dresses have come to a standstill. The strikers are milling around the streets in a holiday mood. Store buyers are telephoning frantically, manufacturers are issuing soothing statements and the general public is viewing the situation with mixed feelings.

Women who vowed they never would wear the gunnysack styles now have discovered that life will not be worth living unless they can have one in time for the Easter parade. Stores are telling manufacturers that they will not accept merchandise shipped too late for the Easter trade. Most husbands are jubilant.

Last word from the strike front is the prediction that it will all be over soon—public pressure will force a settlement, so they say, in time for Mrs. America to get her new outfit.

But the strikers may be discounting the power of the American male, who will happily let his wife wear last year's dress.

AN EMBARRASSING KINDNESS

Dear Mrs. Post: The other day my employer came over to my desk to discuss something with me. As I stood talking to him I noticed a hair on the collar of his jacket. I reached over and picked it off thinking that I was doing him a kindness as he is a meticulous person. However, he seemed rather embarrassed at my doing this and I have been wondering ever since whether I was wrong. I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: Had you noticed a trace of fresh paint on his sleeve you would have properly called it to his attention and offered to remove it with a little cleaning fluid, but it would have been better not to have done anything to show you were aware of the hair on his collar.

Thanks for Gift Tickets

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband's employer gave him two tickets to a concert which he could not use. This was a real treat to me and I had a wonderful evening. My husband thinks I should write a note of thanks to his employer for having given us the tickets. I will be glad to do so if you think it is necessary.

Answer: Taking it for granted that your husband thanked him when he handed him the tickets, that is all that is necessary. If he had sent them to you with a note, then you would write and thank him. Of course if you have occasion to talk to him on the telephone you would certainly tell him how much you enjoyed the concert.

Parties for Bride-To-Be

Dear Mrs. Post: How soon after her engagement is announced, is it proper for a young woman's friends to give showers and other parties in her honor? The friend I refer to particularly is not being married for almost a year, and some of us feel that it is as yet too soon to start giving parties for her.

Answer: A year is much too soon to start giving parties. When the wedding date has been set, her friends start giving parties for her.

Everyone knows that the 25th

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Township Groups Asked to Session Of Youth Council

Saugerties Youth Council will seek a cross section opinion regarding the need of a youth center or teenage canteen at its meeting Wednesday, March 12 at 7:30 p. m., in the village clerk's office.

Council Secretary Mrs. Joan Feldmann and her committee have mailed over 100 letters of invitation to town and village organizations asking them to be represented at the meeting.

The opinions of these representatives will have a great deal of bearing on whether or not the council will undertake the project of establishing a youth center in Saugerties.

Council Chairman Albert J. Cawein said, "We know there is a need for such a canteen for the youngsters. Now we want to know if we have the backing of public opinion. This is a huge undertaking and we will need the cooperation and moral support of all to make it a success." The agenda of the meeting will include recommendations for amending the by-laws of the council.

Add Five New Teachers To Saugerties Faculty

Five new teachers were appointed to the staff of Saugerties Central Schools for the 1958-1959 terms, according to an announcement from Saugerties Board of Education this week. They are: Audrey Pacak, first grade; Virginia Reine, physical education; Alice Dimmler, first grade; John D. Stefano, seventh grade and Kenneth Lane, guidance counselor.

The board received with regret the resignation of Charles Messinger as custodian at the Glasco School and noted the faithful and efficient service of Messinger in this position at Glasco over a period of 28 years.

Washington Hook and Ladder Company was granted permission to use that portion of the Cantine lot on the north side of Main Street which is immediately back of the sheds on the former Kiersted property during the period of June 9-14 for a bazaar. It is not believed that the use of this area will interfere with the use of the play area by the school pupils at that time.

Superintendent Grant D. Morse informed the board that there are 42 pupils currently enrolled in the second grade at the Main Street School. There are 32 second graders at the Mount Marion School, and in the Glasco second grades there are, respectively, 28 and 27 pupils.

Latin Club of SHS Makes Trip to Gotham

Highlight of the Saugerties High School Latin Club's trip to New York City Saturday was its attendance at the Metropolitan Opera House where they heard Walter Cassel sing Jochanaan in "Salome."

The Metropolitan baritone substituted for the scheduled lead and so sang his third principal role within 24 hours in consecutive operas, the group reported. Inge Borkh received many ovations for her portrayal of Salome. "Gianni Schicchi, a light opera by Puccini preceded Salome. In the afternoon the group saw a musical comedy.

They had lunch at Enrico and Paglieri's in Greenwich Village and later visited Fifth Avenue, St. Patrick's Cathedral and Rockefeller Center. The group had dinner at Schrafft's, Fifth Avenue.

Attending were Joanne Turco, consul; Rosemarie Raucci, Lisa Lukkari, Salli Davi, Patricia Fuller, Lowell Mayone, Robert Schirmer, Linda Montano, scriba; Patricia Wynne, Daryl Hargreaves, Nancy Overbagh, Aileen Gleason, Sally Lamouree, Carolyn Roesner, Donna Frants, Jill Robinson, Judy Flewelling, Jane Granwehr, Edward Wey, Riita Lukkari, Carolyn Helpert, Donna Sperl, Arline Krom, Halley Thompson, Lynda Wrolsen, John Barone, Mark Johnson and Barry Wolsen.

Also attending were a guest, Patricia Hogan; Mrs. William Straub, Mrs. Winthrop Emmons, Miss Joan Costa of Newburgh and Miss Elinor Lente, advisor of the club.

Local YWCA Names Convention Delegates

The Young Women's Christian Association of Kingston, a Red Feather agency, will have two representatives at the 21st national triennial convention of the YWCA of the USA, March 13-19 at the Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis, Mo., it was announced today by Mrs. Erma DeBoer, executive director.

Delegates from this community include Miss Mary Van Dine, program director of the local YWCA, and Miss Jacqueline Rethier, a member of the Tri-Hi Y-Teen Club. Miss Van Dine will act as an usher during Convention and Miss Rethier will be a singer in the convention choir.

They will be among the approximately 3,000 women from the more than 1,900 YWCA units in the United States who will be speaking for the total YWCA membership in this country on the formulation of YWCA policy for the next triennium. Theme of the 1958 Convention is "Deep Roots and World Reach." During the past several months local YWCAs have reviewed the Convention Work Book based on this theme, and delegates have been prepared to discuss the major issues of the Convention including a new statement on the YWCA's family life program, a peace statement, and the public affairs program.

The convention program, according to Mrs. DeBoer, will emphasize the needs of individual members and of the local YWCA, as an organization meeting community needs, in the light of the world setting.

Opening session of the convention will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, March 13, with Miss Lilace Reid Barnes, national YWCA president, presiding, and presenting the first principal address of the week-long parley. "Our Deep Roots" is the subject of Miss Barnes' address.

Other leaders in religious and national and world affairs will speak on various facts of the convention theme. They include Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of City College of New York, whose subject Thursday night, March 13, will be "The World and Us."

Dr. Hadley Cantril, chairman of the board of the Institute for International Social Research, Princeton, N. J., and Dr. Marion Hilliard, outstanding woman doctor, a vice-president of the YWCA of Canada, and author of the best seller, "A Woman Doctor Looks at Love and Life," who will participate in a panel discussion on Friday night, March 14, "Understanding Ourselves in Our Culture," will also be featured speakers.

At the convention dinner Saturday night, March 15, Paul G. Hoffman, corporation executive and international affairs expert, will be the principal speaker. Dr. Zelma George of Cleveland, O., singer, sociologist and leader in work with young people, will be featured at the dinner.

Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of Churches, will speak Sunday night, March 16, preceding the presentation of the YWCA's peace statement.

The report on election of new officers for the National YWCA will be given Tuesday morning, March 18. Two highlights of the convention will be the appearance of all American advisory secretaries serving overseas, and the presentation of a new YWCA dramatic work, "Who Knows Mrs. Power?" written, directed and produced by the American Theatre Wing. In addition, the delegates will hear an officer of the World YWCA, Mrs. Ba Maung Chain, vice-president for Asia, and chairman of the World YWCA's Mutual Service Committee. She will speak Friday afternoon, March 14, during the report of the Foreign Division of the National YWCA.

Girl Scout Week, New Districting Highlight Reports

Girl Scout Week and districting of neighborhoods marked the highlights of reports given before the Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts Board of Directors meeting held recently at the Federated Church in Kerhonkson.

The Freeman, in recognition of Girl Scout Week, March 10-16, will devote publicity to the annual observance throughout that week.

Districting Favored
Neighborhood chairmen of the Ulster County Girl Scout Council area report an overwhelming response from Adult Scouts favoring districting within the present Girl Scout neighborhoods, according to Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Council Neighborhood Coordinator, in a report to the Board of Directors, at a recent meeting held at the Federated Church in Kerhonkson.

Aimed at better Council structure to meet the increasing demands of girls between the ages of 7-17 within the county for Scouting activities, districting has been under study by the members for several months. Following intensive research and a county-wide survey, organizational plans were formulated in early January under the direction of Miss Dolores Yorba, Council Advisor of the National Staff of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. The Board of Directors approved the detailed plan of proposed districting and Council changes necessary for its implementation at the February meeting. Under the direction of the steering committee, the proposed plans for districting have been presented to the Council's 11 neighborhoods which include Ellenville, Kerhonkson-Acord, Marletown-Rosendale, Highland-Clintondale, New Paltz, Wallkill, Marlboro, Woodstock, Kingston Uptown, Kingston Downtown, and Ontario.

Operational Unit
The Neighborhood is the basic operational unit of a Girl Scout Council. Under the guidance of a strong service team comprised of three adult scouts, day-by-day services are made available to troops with enriching program experiences for all girls. The District is a grouping of neighborhoods within the Council area for the purpose of better coordination and channeling. In districting, numerous factors such as number of troops, natural geographic groupings, communication facilities and placement on the Board of Directors are considered by the committee in charge.

Leadership of the district is assumed by a district chairman elected by the Council.

Advantages Noted
"The advantages of districting in a developing and rapidly expanding Council area far outweigh the disadvantages pointed out by the committee directed by the Board to present to all neighborhoods an unbiased overall view of the proposed structural changes," Mrs. Anderson said. "Neighborhoods are enthusiastic in recommending the adoption of the plan at the Spring Council meeting."

The Spring Council meeting is an annual evening dinner meeting in which the Council's 500 Adult Scouts and 100 Senior Girl Scouts are invited to participate. This year's annual meeting will take place at Deane's Restaurant, Woodstock, Tuesday, April 22, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Oleta Schrottky, dramatics consultant, of the National Staff of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. will be guest speaker.

New Scout Office
Miss Alyce Kowalski, county chairman of employed personnel, briefed the Board on the local Girl Scout office situation in relation to the Council's anticipated growth and expansion of services. Miss Kowalski noted that the present office space is not adequate for the increased work-load staff and committee meetings, necessary to meet the demands of the Girl Scout program within the county. The Board decided to move the local office to a larger office suite in the same building, 292 Fair Street. The new Girl Scout office will officially open on April 1st.

Seek Executive Director
A full report of the interviews currently being conducted by the committee on Employed Personnel in their attempt to obtain a qualified professional Girl Scout executive director was presented. According to National Girl Scout standards, an applicant is required to hold a BA degree with background courses in psychology, sociology and human relations.

Personal interviews by qualified persons may be scheduled with Miss Kowalski at the local Girl Scout office.

Mrs. Daniel VanWagenen, county camp chairman, reported that plans are in full progress for an outstanding summer season at Camp Wendy, Ulster County Girl Scout Council's established camp at Wallkill. Miss Barbara Plate, of West Englewood, N. J. has accepted the directorship of the camp for a second season. The committee plans to increase facilities to accommodate the camp maximum of 108 campers and approximately 30 staff members. Dates established for the three encampments are: July 6-19; July 20-August 2; and August 3-16.

Camp Committee Named
Following an extensive survey of the immediate and future needs of Camp Wendy in relation to obtaining maximum usage of the Council's 53 acres of terrain at Wallkill for a longer established camping season each summer and for year-round troop camping, the board approved the establishment of a Camp Development committee. Mrs. Donovan Buehring, council president appointed the following: Mrs. Robert Greene of Woodstock, chairman; Mrs. VanWagenen, Mrs. Dorothy Lacey, Mrs. David Ennis, Miss Alyce Kowalski, James Plunkett, Albert Milliken, Arthur Patterson, Augustus Brinnier, Primo Montafia, Abram Heinlein and Alan Mickel, of Kingston; Kenneth Martin, of Woodstock; and J. C. Hoyt of Wallkill.

Mrs. Rita Scott, training chairman, announced the following schedule of training events: final sessions in basic leadership, March 3, 10, and 17 at the home of Miss Louise Haynes, West Hurley, Finance Institute, New York City, April 21-22 and 24-25; recruitment institute, Henry Hudson Hotel, New York City, April 17-18; program workshop, Forsyth Park, Kingston, May 8. Mrs. Calvin Wygant, vice president, was elected to represent the local council at the president's meeting, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., in May.

Girl Scout Week
Mrs. Lacey and Mrs. Ennis, representing program and public relations, presented a detailed joint report of activities planned for Girl Scout Week in commemoration of the founding of the Girl Scout movement in Savannah, Ga., in 1912. Highlights of the Birthday Week will include: Girl Scout attendance at neighborhood churches on March 9, opening the week's ceremonies; neighborhood birthday parties; school assembly programs; Scout personnel appearances on programs throughout the week on local radio stations; anniversary and Juliette Lowe birthday ceremonies; exhibits and window displays. Girl Scout window displays will be judged on the weekend preceding Girl Scout Week. Awards for outstanding work in this Council-sponsored project will be presented to troop representatives at the Spring Council

Teachers College for the state finals in April. Schools participating at New Paltz will be Poughkeepsie, Arlington, Liberty, Wallkill, Beacon, Wappingers Falls, Hyde Park, Haldane, Tarrytown, Ossining and Rondout Valley Central.

Rondout Valley Central will enter two teams. Students who have represented and will represent Rondout Valley at New Paltz are Jay Lovinger Myron Dembo, Edward Hannon, Cary Sherman, William Dunn, William Gersch, Neal Geller and Rita Levine. The topic to be debated will be "U. S. Foreign Aid Should be Substantially Increased."

Jack of All Trades

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Downing, a man with two jobs, won't just be acting in Broadway's planned comedy-with-music, "Say, Darling."

The plot concerns theatre folk and production of a musical. Downing was first signed to be stage manager of the real life production, and then cast to act the role of a stage manager in the show.

A special union waiver was required for him to take the dual chore.

TOP YOUTH — Margaret Ann Nichols smiles in Milton, Mass., after being named "the most outstanding Catholic youth of America" by the CYO. Peggy, 20, is a Regis College sophomore and hopes to be a newspaperwoman.

Rondout Valley Debaters Enter Paltz Sectionals

Rondout Valley Central School Debate Club was host to Jeffersonville and Saugerties High Schools Wednesday, February 26, at Kerhonkson High School.

The topic for debate was "United States Foreign Aid Should Be Substantially Increased."

Jeffersonville High took first place honors.

On March 3, Rondout Valley debated at Poughkeepsie High School at Poughkeepsie High School. Rondout Valley won all four rounds and placed first speaker in each round.

Rondout Valley Central School is to participate in the New York State High School Forensic League Debate Sectionals at New Paltz State Teachers College Saturday, March 8. The winners will go to Albany State

Prior to his present appointment he served in a managerial post at Endicott.

On Maneuvers

Pvt. Richard L. Minkler, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Minkler, 19 Dunn Street, recently participated in "Sabre Hawk," a Seventh Army maneuver which involved more than 100,000 troops in Germany. Pvt. Minkler, who arrived overseas last November, is a mechanic in Company D of the 510th Tank Battalion. The former Kingston High School student entered the Army in April 1957 and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON
OH, NO!

"We don't want to pilfer the U. S. Treasury!" says the Mayor of Independence, Missouri. "But —"

This classic comment fairly well sums up the feeling of city officials who recently met at a convention. The mayors want more, not less, Federal help for local improvements of every sort—from collecting garbage to collecting votes.

The Mayor of Independence acts like the Mayor of other cities. He wants to tax the people of other cities to pay his bills.

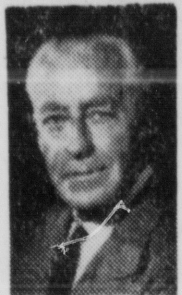

Then at election time, he'll say, "See what I did for you. I got all these improvements for Independence without raising your taxes!"

This is political sleight-of-hand of a high order. Cal Coolidge was mayor once—of Northampton, Mass. I'd like to see Cal run against the Mayor of Independence and watch the crowd as he laid it on the line.

"My opponent," he would say, "wants the Federal tax collectors to pry open your pocketbooks, to pay the cost of running Mochville, Spongetown, Parasite and New Doler; and then tax the voters of those towns to pay the bills of Dependence."

"If you are as bright as you look, you will see the Federals taking their cut out of every dollar that goes in and out of Washington, with the result that you and everybody else pay more taxes than if you ran your own affairs."

"But it does help Washington grow!"

MR. HUTTON

State Outlook

437,500 Jobless Claims Highest Since 1949 Date

NEW YORK — A total of 437,500 unemployment insurance claimants were reported in New York State last week, making it the highest for a February since 1949.

The Department of Labor said yesterday the claims rose by 11,500 last week, with the figure 68 per cent higher than the same period a year ago.

Buffalo suffered the largest single plant layoff of the week—1,900 auto workers dropped from the payroll of one plant.

The labor department said total claims in New York City went up only 2,700. However, the New York City unemployment figure was 47 per cent higher than a year ago. The Upstate total was put at 96 per cent above last year's equivalent period.

Name Tug, Derrick

WASHINGTON — A St. Lawrence Seaway 103-foot ice-breaking tug and a 150-foot gate-lifter derrick today were designated, respectively, the "Robinson Bay" and the "Grasse River."

The names were selected by the advisory board of the St. Lawrence Seaway Corp., the agency created by Congress to construct and administer the U. S. portion of the 27-foot-deep international waterway.

The two names formerly were used to designate the seaway's two locks, now known as the Eisenhower and Snell Locks.

The latter is named for the late Bertrand H. Snell, a former House Republican from New York who introduced the first seaway bill in 1917.

Irish to Take Over

DUBLIN, Tex. — As anyone might have guessed, St. Patrick's Day, March 17, will be a big day here.

The central Texas town will be turned over to the Irish. Mayor M. Hoffman, Dublin's Jewish mayor, has agreed to change his name to Pat Flannigan for the day.

Parades, beauty contests and band contests will be featured.

Florida Crash Fatal To Upstate Woman

CRYSTAL RIVER, Fla. — A New York woman was killed and two other motorists were injured Tuesday night when their car ran into the rear of a truck.

Margaret Alford, who lived here and at Cooperstown, N. Y., was killed.

Mrs. Alford, 59, once operated the Hickory Grove Inn near Cooperstown. She sold it about 11 years ago.

Injured in the accident were Thomas Kelly, driver of the car, and Albert Meeks of Inverness, Fla.

Sheriff B. R. Quinn said a truck driver was driving his vehicle off the road so that he could assist another car, which had a flat tire. The car driven by Kelly skidded 73 feet and rammed into the rear end of the truck, he said.

AEC Bares Secrets of Explosion

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. — The Atomic Energy Commission is disclosing today some of the secrets of what happened inside a mountain that was bounced six inches by an atomic explosion last September.

News men were on hand to inspect for the first time the tunnel leading to the inferno-like chamber in which the blast was set off 800 feet below the top of an isolated desert mesa. At the end of the 2,000-foot-long tunnel are several holes which scientists have drilled into the blast chamber.

When the underground atomic blast was set off last Sept. 19, scientists at more than 600 earthquake recording stations were waiting at their seismographs. They hoped to learn what the earth is made of, by studying the patterns of shockwaves as they raced through the various strata of the globe.

To a large extent, they were disappointed. The only surface effects noticed at the site were puffs of dust and falling rocks.

Dr. Frank Press, head of the seismological laboratory at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, Calif., said instruments there recorded a minor shock.

AEC scientists announced shortly after the September explosion that all radiation had been contained within the mountain chamber.

Over the months since then scientists have drilled cautiously into the boom-room. That's the only way they can find out what happened when the bomb went off. Extreme radiation hazards will prevent humans from actually going inside for at least a century.

Directs Station Plans

WASHINGTON — The General Services Administration said today it had directed a firm of architects to draw up plans for $225,000 worth of improvements at the border patrol station at Champlain, N. Y.

The firm of Sargent, Webster, Crenshaw and Folley of Plattsburgh, near Champlain, will be paid $12,000. It will be given three months to prepare drawings and specifications.

The work will include an additional story to the present quarters, a new freight house and truck scale, basement alterations, and an extended canopy.

Spindly Legs, Too

8500 A.D. May Bring Hairless, Toeless People

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Man 65 centuries from now may have a hairless head, spindly legs and no toes.

A University of Southern California biology professor, Jay M. Savage, said yesterday these are "evolutionary possibilities" for around 8500 A. D.

"Not only are toes getting shorter," he said, "but the little toe has practically no function any more."

Primitive man needed toes for balance, clutching and grasping, he said, but frostbite victims have demonstrated that modern man can balance himself with only a big toe.

Hair was meant to shield man from the elements, Savage said. But with hats, houses, umbrellas and closed cars, who needs hair? Baldness is increasing among men and may eventually include women, he said.

With expanding mechanization, legs will get less use and could become spindly, he added.

Boy Admits Setting

Church Fire, Blames God

LONDON (AP)—An 11-year-old boy says he set fire to a church because God made him unhappy.

The boy's mother died when he was a baby.

Police Detective Edward Anning said in court yesterday the boy told him:

"The reason I did it is I am unhappy. I lay in bed and wondered why God has made me unhappy. So I decided to burn his church."

The blaze caused more than $500 damage.

The court deferred disposition of the case pending a psychiatric examination of the boy. The child's name was not announced.

Still Won't Retire

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Even though they took his job away, the oldest man now on active duty in the Air Force still won't retire.

Randolph Air Force Base Museum will be closed soon, Air Force officials said, but its 72-year-old custodian, M. Sgt. Horst Tittel, will be retained on active duty. He and other personnel now assigned to the museum will be reassigned.

Tittel is a veteran of 50 years of Air Force service.

The museum is to be consolidated with Lackland Air Force Base Museum.

Text of Proclamation

The proclamation of the Papal Brief, conferred by Pope Pius, reads as follows:

"Beloved son, health and apostolic blessing. Graciously assenting to the requests made to us, because we are convinced that special qualities of soul and mind shine forth in you, and with what zealous labor you take care to promote the welfare of all things Catholic, in order that we may show publicly our good will toward you, we choose, make and proclaim you Martin J. Drury, of the Archdiocese of New York, protonotary apostolic after the manner of the members of the Papal Household.

"Therefore we grant to you all the privileges, honors and prerogatives which are attached to this dignity according to the Apostolic Constitution 'Inter Multiplices' of Pius X and 'Ad Incrementum' of Pius XI, a copy of which we order to be given to you with the condition that you take the customary oath and observe the other prescriptions of these same conditions. Given at St. Peter's in Rome the seventh day of January 1958 by the special order of His Holiness through the Cardinal Secretary of State."

Mamie's In-Law Will Get Chance to Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Col. George Gordon Moore, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Eisenhower, will be given a chance to testify in a House investigation of alleged influence in the grant of a lucrative television license in Miami.

Moore denied yesterday that he had anything to do with the Federal Communications Commission grant of TV Channel 10 to a National Airlines subsidiary headed by G. T. Baker, a friend of his. But Moore wrote Rep. Harris (D-Ark), chairman of the investigating subcommittee, that he is willing to repeat his denial under oath.

"Of course the committee will give him that opportunity," Harris told newsmen. He said no definite arrangements have been made.

Tunisia-Egypt Break Possible Over Death Plot

TUNIS (AP)—President Habib Bourguiba threatened today to break diplomatic relations with Egypt over an alleged Cairo-based plot to assassinate the Tunisian chief of state.

Bourguiba said in a broadcast to his nation that he had informed Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser unless a "serious explanation" was forthcoming of alleged plot, "we no longer have any need of diplomatic relations with Egypt."

Led by Ben Youssef

The pro-Western Tunisian government, in charging the plot yesterday, claimed it was headed by the exiled Tunisian extremist leader, Salah Ben Youssef, who is sheltered in Cairo by Nasser's government. Ben Youssef replied that the charge was fabricated to divert Tunisian public opinion from pressing Bourguiba into joining the new United Arab Republic of Egypt and Syria.

Presumably Bourguiba meant he would break with the U. A. R., which has taken over the diplomatic relations of both Egypt and Syria.

From the U. A. R. side came charges that King Saud of Saudi Arabia had plotted to kill Nasser and wreck the new Arab union. It appeared that the Egyptian leader had embarked on a campaign to lump Saud with King Faisal II and Hussein of the Arab federation as enemies of Arab unity.

The chief accuser of Saud was Lt. Col. Abdul Hamid Serraj, Syrian army intelligence chief. Similar charges were made by an Egyptian witness in a Cairo court, and Nasser himself spoke of a Saudi plot.

Coup Attempt Told

Serraj told a news conference that King Saud's Syrian father-in-law, Asad Irbahim, tried to recruit him to lead an army coup to prevent the Egyptian-Syrian union. Serraj was to become president of Syria after the coup Feb. 21, the date of a plebiscite on the union, he said.

"He (Irbahim) told me King Saud was ready to secure recognition by foreign powers of the new Syrian regime (and) that the Americans were aware of the plot," Serraj said. He claimed Arabia would pay the equivalent of $5,600,000 in advance and $6 million upon completion of the plot.

There was no comment from American or Saudi sources on the charges.

The intelligence chief, who has been accused of being pro-Communist, said another Saudi agent offered him about $75,000 to arrange for a Syrian plane to shoot down Nasser's plane.

It would be claimed afterward that the attacking plane was Israeli, or American, or British," Serraj said.

Minute Car Wash, Paltz in Tourney At Poughkeepsie

Ulster County's two entries—Minute Car Wash, of Port Ewen, and New Paltz—are paired March 12 in the 15th annual YMCA Hudson Valley Basketball Tournament at Poughkeepsie.

Sixteen area teams are entered in the post-season classic which opens March 10 with Ketcham's facing Busa's.

Other entries include Middletown YMCA, Morgan Fuel, Pine Plains Bombardiers, Red Hook, Reddy Kilowatt, Pokipsy Stars, Redskill All Star, Dover Plains, Castro-Danbury, Longbard's, Wappiner Gaels and Economy Cleaners.

The finals are scheduled March 26.

Too Young for Fame

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Jay Hook, the pitcher who went from the Milwaukee sandlots to the Cincinnati Redlegs last season, tells this story about himself: He held the Braves hitless for five innings last year only to have Manager Birdie Tebbetts relieve him. What did Tebbetts tell him when he took him out with a no-hitter working? Hook says: "He patted me on the back and said, 'You're too young to pitch a no-hitter, anyway.'"

Chevies Play Pine Plains in Playoff Sunday

Playoffs start Sunday in the Hudson Valley Basketball League, with Byrne Chevies, undefeated league champions, meeting the refurbished Pine Plains Bombardiers at 8 p. m. at the municipal auditorium.

Plans for the playoffs were completed by league managers at a meeting last night in Poughkeepsie.

The second game of the series is scheduled next Thursday. Meanwhile, second-place Fishkill and third-place Poughkeepsie Stallions launch their series next Wednesday at Lincoln Center and play the second game at IBM Country Club on Friday.

The semi-finals are best-of-three playoffs.

Pine Plains was granted permission to add three players to its roster. Bob Knight, formerly with the Harlem Globetrotters, and Bill Stoor and Ken Miller of Fishkill are the newcomers.

Catskill Downhill On Sunday

The Catskill Downhill race will take place on the Dry Brook Trail at the Highmount Ski Center starting at 11 a. m. Sunday.

The event was rescheduled with the USEASA which started its Downhill and Slalom Events at various centers within its jurisdiction on March 1.

The trail for the Catskill event will be opened for practice on Saturday. Previous entries will be accepted until entrants have been notified to the contrary. Numbers are to be picked up at the Highmount Base shelters Sunday morning.

During that weekend, junior and interscholastic, cross country and jumping and four event are scheduled at Smugglers Notch Skiway Area, Jeffersonville, Vt., North Conway, N. H., Holderness, Plymouth, N. H. and Andover, Maine and Manchester, Vt.

The following weekend at White Mt., Franconia, N. H., the men and women slalom and downhill events will be held for Class A and B.

The Burke Mt. trophy race for men and women in Class C and unclassified will be at Lyndonville, Vt. The Webber-Cup-Willis Plate will be at Cannon Mt., Franconia, N. H.

The American International College Trophy for men in Classes A, B and C will be at Okemo Mt., Ludlow, Vt. on March 15.

Knicks in Cellar If Warriors Win

By The Associated Press

Philadelphia can close the book for the New York Knickerbockers tonight by defeating the Cincinnati Royals on the Warriors' home court.

A victory for the Warriors would enable them to clinch the third and last playoff position in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn. and insure the Knicks of a cellar finish for the second straight season.

The Knicks reached the "brink" last night when they lost to the Syracuse Nationals 102-91. Now the best the Knickerbockers can do is tie for third place. And they can accomplish that only if they win all three of their remaining games and Philadelphia loses the four games it has left.

Syracuse, runnerup in the Eastern Division, broke a tie on a basket by Dolph Schayes late in the third period and held the lead the rest of the way.

In the night's only other game involving the divisional champions, the Boston Celtics and St. Louis Hawks, the Celts came out on top 109-102.

Woodstock Motor Club Sets Sno-Ball Rally on March 23

Woodstock Motor Club has set Sunday, March 23, as the new date for the Sno-Ball Rally, postponed from its original date of Feb. 9 because of bad weather.

The rally is scheduled to start at 12:30 noon at the Grand Union parking lot in Woodstock. Members are cautioned to bring tire chains, a shovel and a pail of snow.

Members will meet at the clubhouse grounds Saturday, March 8, at 8:30 a. m. to burn brush and clear more space around the building site. Plans for the clubhouse have been approved and construction by the members will begin as soon as weather permits.

Committees already have started preliminary plans for the 4th annual Concours and Car Capers, which promises to be more spectacular than ever. July has been selected as the month and the specific date will

Robertson May Back Into Title

The Associated Press

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, who makes it look easy when he's on the basketball court, may have clinched the major college season scoring title last night without lifting a finger.

While All-America Oscar was idling, All-America Elgin Baylor of Seattle was hitting one of his season low marks, scoring a mere 21 points in a 73-60 victory over Idaho State.

Now, with each assured of two more games depending on how their teams go in the NCAA tournament, Robertson leads Baylor by eight-tenths of a point with a 34.76 average to the Seattle ace's 33.96. Eight-tenths is no runaway but, broken down on the basis of two more starts for each hotshot, it means Baylor would have to outscore Oscar by 20 points to top the amazing Bearcat sophomore.

Robertson closes his regular season against Xavier of Ohio Saturday night before moving into the NCAA Regional at Lawrence, Kan., on March 14. Baylor has a pre-NCAA date with Bradley next Monday.

Hits Nine Fields

The 6-5 Seattle junior hit on nine-field goals and three of seven free throws last night before fouling out with 5½ minutes left. Idaho State, in the NCAA tourney as Rocky Mountain Conference champs, had won an earlier meeting from Seattle, 71-68 in overtime.

Except for the Seattle-Idaho State game, most of last night's activity was in the East with much-thumped Duquesne furnishing the highlight with a 77-54 upset of a St. Bonaventure team that had won 15 in a row.

The Bonnies, seeded third for next week's National Invitation Tournament at New York earlier in the day, fell behind by nine points at halftime and never threatened against the Dukes, only 10-11 for the season. Bernie Matthews' 21 points led Duquesne while Fritz Binder chipped in with 18 and Jack Sauer with 17.

St. Bonaventure's defeat ended a rough 24 hours for the NIT, which the night before had seen Dayton's 16-game winning streak snapped by NCAA-bound Cincinnati.

Nevertheless, Dayton drew the top seed for the tournament beginning March 13, with defending champion Bradley No. 2. St. Bonaventure No. 3 and Utah of the Skyline Conference No. 4.

Butler of Indianapolis, winner of nine of its last 10 for a 16-9 record, was named to complete the 12-team NIT field and paired against St. John's of Brooklyn in the tourney's opening doubleheader. St. Joseph's (Pa.) faces St. Peters (N.J.) in the other game.

Niagara, Xavier of Ohio, Utah, St. Bonaventure, Fordham, and St. Francis (Pa.) play their first games March 15 with Bradley and Dayton moving into action on Tuesday, March 18.

Fordham Wins

Fordham, Niagara, and St. Joseph's warmed up with victories last night. Jim Cunningham fired in 36 points in Fordham's 107-78 rout of Rutgers while St. Joseph's coming from nine points back with five minutes remaining, nipped Le Moyne (N.Y.) 69-68 on Bobby McNeill's free throw with four seconds to play. Niagara, closing out a 19-6 regular season, whipped Syracuse 78-63 as Boo Ellis netted 22 points and grabbed 27 rebounds for a 502 total that leads the country.

Dartmouth's Ivy League champions, headed for the NCAA tournament, tripped Brown 81-79 on Dave Carruthers' layup with four seconds left for a 20-4 record. Columbia, last in the Ivy, got some consolation when Rudy Milkey scored 26 points in an 85-65 victory over Cornell to clinch the league scoring title.

Runnerup Johnny Lee of Yale scored 40 in a 105-87 belting of Harvard but wound up nine points short of Milkey's 272 total. Yale shared second place in the Ivy standings with Princeton, which downed Penn 59-55 as Carl Belz collected 20 points.

Kingston and Onteora Share in Ski Honors

Kingston High took team laurels and Onteora Central captured four firsts in the Section 9 ski meet over the weekend at the Belleayre Mt. Ski Center.

The Indians, winner of the district trophy for its feats during the past two seasons, had its greatest participation with 36 entrants.

Best individual performance was made by Robert Wilkins of Onteora. He took first in both the downhill and slalom events. Philip Davenport of Kingston was second.

Wilkins took the slalom in 1:17.2 just 2.8 better than the runnerup, while in the other event he was clocked in 41.5, 7/10ths of a second faster than Davenport.

Three Onteora girls, Joyce Frisberg, Doris Mellin and Judi Frisberg finished in that order in the combined events.

In the Class C novice division, Robert Larsen placed first in the slalom and third in the downhill event. Robert Kuenn was first in the downhill.

The complete order of finish in the Class A senior events follows:

SLALOM—R. Wilkins, 1:17.2; Davenport (K) 1:20; P. Wilkins, 1:23.7; Warshaw, 1:23.9; Kullman, 1:24.9; Valeo, 1:30; King 1:33.7; Folkerts, 1:36.9.

DOWNHILL—R. Wilkins, 41.5; Davenport, 48.5; Valeo, 51.5; Kullman, 52.9; Daley 53.5; Sanchis, 1:08.3; King, 1:14.2; Greisser, 1:55.5.

Timers for the events were Sue Huebner and Joan MacLeod; starters, Dick Stedman and Andy Shekitka; recorder, Ruth Stedman; course setter, Dot Nebel; telephone, Charles Nebel.

Birdie Seeks Reds Fourth Mound Starter

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts is beginning to concentrate his attention on the Cincinnati Redlegs' pitching staff—the team's soft spot last season. Tebbetts said yesterday, "right now my first thought is to find a fourth pitcher. I believe we have three solid starters in Brooks Lawrence, Harvey Haddix and Joe Nuxhall, if he can keep his weight within bounds.

"That isn't enough. We need at least a fourth starter."

Yankees Pick Chisox As Chief 1958 Threat

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A poll of New York Yankee ballplayers indicated today that the American League champs feel their chief 1958 opposition again will come from the Chicago White Sox.

Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford, Johnny Kucks, Yogi Berra and Hank Bauer said the White Sox would be the toughest opposing club, while Gil McDougald put the finger on the Baltimore Orioles.

Troy YMCA Sets Tourney Dates

The date for the Ninth Annual Troy YMCA Open Invitational Basketball Tournament is set to begin on Monday, March 31, at the Troy YMCA.

Teams of the area interested in competing in this tournament may contact Alexander Melley, physical director of the Troy YMCA.

Cities who have been represented in this tournament in recent years are: Amsterdam, Bennington, Catskill, Coopers-town, Gloversville, Newburgh, Peekskill, Poughkeepsie, Schenectady, Syracuse, Hoosick Falls, Hudson, Kingston, Utica and Troy.

Tournament will be limited to the first sixteen teams registering.

Gonzales Wins

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 5 (AP)—Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles continued his relentless comeback against Australia's Lew Hoad last night before 4,500 tennis fans by defeating Hoad 13-15, 6-4, 6-2.

Ossie Tops Scoring In DUSO Again

Alex Osowick, Port Jervis' circus-shooting sensation, captured his second straight DUSO League scoring championship with a total of 426 points, 58 points less than last season's all-time high. He finished with 169 field goals and 88 foul shots for a 26.6 average, and 33 more than Johnny Lawrence of Liberty who meshed 393 points.

The spectacular little Redskin whipped in 136 baskets and converted 121 free throws for a 24.9 average.

Kingston's George Uhl holds down third place with 284, but is being pressed by Pat McKenna of Poughkeepsie who has 277 with a game at Middletown tonight.

Roy Riley of Newburgh would have had an excellent chance of overhauling Uhl, but an injured left hand has kept him idle and with the three points he scored against Poughkeepsie brings his total for the season up to 276.

CYO Cage Tourneys at Auditorium Saturday

The annual CYO Archdiocesan basketball quarter and semi finals will be staged in the Municipal Auditorium beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

In the curtain raiser, St. Mary's Tryos will battle the Orange County champions, while the second tilt will find St. Mary's Jayvees against the winners of Dutchess County League.

Both teams went undefeated in its quest for the crowns they each hold. Tom Oulton and Joe Cavano guided the Tryos while Frank Cavano and Joe Spada coached the juniors.

A father and son dinner for participants in the St. Mary's League is planned after the Lenten season.

Basilio Pounds New Spar Mates

SYRACUSE & — Much-pounded Archie Whitfield, Carmen Basilio's sparring partner, took a busman's holiday today.

Whitfield occupied his time seconding his two new substitutes, who went two rounds each against the world's middleweight champion.

Basilio, who will defend his 160-pound title March 25 against Sugar Ray Robinson in Chicago, lashed away at Miami products, Willie Johnson and Red Shepard.

The four-round sparring brought Basilio's total to 71 in the training period.

Kearns Ties RPI Hockey Record

By The Associated Press

Gary Kearns today shared a scoring record at Rensselaer Polytechnic and Clarkson College was pushing harder for an NCAA bid following two Upstate hockey finales.

At Troy last night, Kearns machine-gunned five goals and six assists to tie a 1952 RPI record and help the hosts bury Hamilton, 21-2. Meanwhile Clarkson completed a perfect record in the Tri-State League by edging its St. Lawrence hosts 4-3 on Bob Van Lammers' 20-foot overtime goal.

Behind Kearns in RPI's scoring orgy were Paul Midghall with four goals and five assists, Ray Belaski with four goals and four assists and Jerry Kloppenburg, who made three goals and three assists.

Charlie Hudson scored both goals for Hamilton, which ended its season with a 6-10-2 record, the hosts wound up with a 14-6-1 showing.

At Canton, Rip Rippelle of St. Lawrence tied the score at three-all with 1:52 minutes left in the last period, but Van Lammers' goal gave the game to Clarkson at 1:29 of the overtime.

Clarkson, with a 16-2 season record, is a leading contender for a bid to the NCAA Tournament at Minneapolis March 13-15. The two Eastern entries will be chosen this weekend in Boston.

The Larries finished 10-8-2 for the season.

Ken Venturi Pick In Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Cloudy skies and wet fairways awaited a field of 150 today as the $20,000 New Orleans Open got underway.

with youthful Ken Venturi still tabbed as the man to beat.

Heavy afternoon rains pelted the city yesterday and a light drizzle fell during the night to make the course more difficult for Venturi and his fellow touring PGA professionals.

Venturi won the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open that ended Sunday and indicated he was ready to break the hold that Doug Ford, Lloyd Mangrum and a few of the other headliners have held for the past few years.

The tournament will be the first PGA event in the city since 1948, when big Bob Hamilton took top honors. City Park No. 1 course will again be the site, but host professional Henry Thomas said the visitors will find the 6,600-yard layout a good deal more difficult.

Freddie Haas of New Orleans, fourth-place finisher in the Baton Rouge open, has the advantage of knowing the course better than anyone else. And his game seems at its best in years.

Other leading contenders include Ford, British Open champion Peter Thomson and distance-hitting George Bayer.

HELEN SUTTON unloaded 204-147-159 for 510 in the Chalet Pioneer Women's league. Marge Neer shot 431, Bea Neer 426, Dolores Bailey 463, Dolores Freese 429, Wilma Stephens 484, Harriet Mulligan 214-483, Edith Charney 416, Jean Thompson 453, Mabel Davis 406, Shirley Williams 414, Charlotte Gray 425, Midge Burger 459, Dolores Joyce 433; team results: Channel Master 0, Herdman's Sport Shop 3; Gilmartin's Lunch 2, Cherny's Rest 1; Snyder's Chicks 1, Century Cement 2.

GENE VAN STEENBURGH mixed 183, 199, 170 for 552 in the Ferraro Pioneer Mixed league. John Suski shot 504, Tony La Rocca 200-559, Nevt Madison 205-208-554, John Fautz 529, Ralph Williams 500, Fred Kurtzweg 513, Gloria Whittaker 201-485, Rita La Rocca 435, Dot Terbillie 435, Ethel Henderson 471; team results: Cedar Rest 3, Lee's Service Station 0, Franz Rambler Sales 3; Royal Tire Service 0; St. James Service Center 2, Villanova Restaurant 1; Schule's Inn 1, Wimpy's Bar & Grill 2.

MJM Wins Sixth, Tops Highland Jrs., 57-22

The MJM Juniors captured their sixth victory of the season yesterday by trampling the Highland yearlings, 57 to 22.

Coach Ronnie Cole utilized every player suited up but the onslaught continued undiminished.

Duane VanDemark, leading scorer for MJM, piled up 18 points to lead his team. Mancinelli dumped in 10 for Highland. Len Bovee was runnerup for MJM with nine.

MJM plays Rondout Valley next Thursday in its last game of the season at the local gym and they will be out to avenge their only setback of the season.

Sonja's Figure Record Is Safe: Miss Heiss

NEW YORK (AP) — No one will ever match Sonja Henie's fabulous record of ten straight world figure skating championships, says the new queen of the ice, Carol Heiss, who adds:

"I certainly don't intend to try. I am sure I couldn't if I did try."

The vivacious little ice ballerina from the Ozone Park section of New York City has just returned from Paris, where last month she won her third world women's title.

She became the first since Miss Henie to win that many in a row.

Now Miss Heiss, who at 18 can perform skating feats Sonja never dreamed about, is preparing to defend her United States championship at Minneapolis March 26-29.

But her eyes are away beyond that. They are on the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, California, in 1960.

"It's the only big prize I haven't won," she said, "I want it badly."

Rivals, Beware!

Score Is Impressive
In 3-Inning Stint

By BEN OLAN

The Associated Press

Cleveland's Herb Score, who befuddled American League batters with his blinding fastball and crackling curve before suffering an eye injury early last season, is back on the beam and the Indians may have to be reckoned with in this year's pennant race.

In his first appearance under game conditions since being hit in the right eye by a line drive off the bat of the Yankees' Gil McDougald last May 7, Score struck out six men in a three-inning intrasquad stint yesterday.

The 24-year-old left-hander fanned four of the first five batters he faced. He weakened a bit after that and gave up a run on two singles and a pair of walks. In his final inning, Score struck out two more batters and drew warm applause from the crowd of 1,500 as he left the field.

He Feels Great

"I felt great," Score said later. "Had a little trouble getting my curve over, but my fastball was good and I was throwing as hard as I could."

If the Indians are to improve on their sixth-place finish of last season and make a success of Bobby Bragan's first year as an American League manager, Score is the guy who'll have to carry most of the pitching load.

Herb won 16 games in his first big league campaign in 1955 and followed it with a 20-9 performance in 1956. He led the league in strikeouts in both seasons.

Score's apparent recovery tempered the rather gloomy reports that emanated from some of the other major league camps.

Outfielder Irv Noren sustained a possible fractured rib when he crashed into a grandstand wall in a St. Louis Cardinals' pepper game. The veteran was ordered to a hospital.

Three Dodgers Hurt

And outfielder Duke Snider, pitcher Johnny Podres and infielder Don Zimmer were injured when an automobile driven by Snider was in an accident. Snider re-injured his left knee, operated on last December. Podres hurt his neck and Zimmer came out of it with a bruised forehead.

Preliminary X-rays of Snider's knee and Podres' neck for possible fractures proved negative.

At the Chicago White Sox' quarters in Tampa, Fla., a bone specialist directed that outfielder Al Smith take it easy for 10 days because of an inflamed tendon.

Smith was acquired from Cleveland in a trade last December. In other news, Milwaukee shortstop Johnny Logan and first baseman Frank Torre came to terms, leaving World Series star Lew Burdette and Wes Covington outside the fold.

The Dodgers signed Frank Howard, Ohio State's baseball and basketball star for a sizable bonus. Manager Paul Richards of Baltimore said that Dave Nicholson, who signed for a bonus close to $100,000 in the next few weeks.

And Pittsburgh outfielder Bob Skinner predicted he would bat .340 and hit 25 homers in 1958.

Tillson captured undisputed possession of first place in the second round of the Ulster County Elementary Basketball League defeating Hurley, 29 to 17.

Woodstock upended Cottkill, first round champion 29 to 22, and in an exhibition contest before a sports assembly Marbletown squeaked to a 19-16 victory over Accord at Stone Ridge.

Bob Bushman paced the Tillson attack with 10 points while John Smith collected five for the losers. The loss dropped Hurley to second place.

Woodstock's siege gun was Bob Waterous who rimmed 22 points while Rod Temple dumped in 10.

In the exhibition game Floyd Turner led Marbletown with nine. Richie Adams scored six for Accord.

Wins for Kendall
Oil in Over 30

A free throw by Vince Peck with nine seconds remaining in the overtime enabled Kendall Oil to shade the VFW, 27 to 26, in the Over 30 League last night at MJM.

Dick Baringer scored three field goals and four from the charity stripe for a 10-point total to lead the Oilers. Gil Kelder was top man for the VFW with 10 and Jack Doyle canned seven.

schedule compared to eight for Cleveland.

The Barons created the first-place deadlock last night by defeating Hershey 3-1 on the losers' ice. Gordon Vejpava paced the winners' attack with two second period goals.

In the only other game, the Springfield Indians whipped the Buffalo Bisons 8-4. Gerry Ehman had two goals for the Indians, who moved to within three points of third-place Providence.

THIS IS A PUNCH—When Chris Rafter entered an amateur tournament in Chicago he never bargained for a punch like this. Flyweight opponent Pat Moore of Kenosha, Wis., did the throwing. Wonder of the whole thing is Rafter was on his feet after this punch. And he lasted the three rounds, but lost.

... so writes a columnist in the

Search for Slayer Centers in Gotham

NEW YORK (AP)—The search for 17-year-old Robert Clifford of Hampden, Mass., has centered here with the finding of the family car on a Manhattan street. Clifford is being sought in connection with the slayings of his mother, father and younger brother. The victims were found in their modest cottage home Tuesday. Each had been shot several times through the head. The .22 caliber rifle believed used in the shootings was found empty in the house.

Missing were Robert Clifford, some $300 in cash, and the family automobile. The car was noted parked Tuesday in a metered area at 78th street and Broadway. It was ticketed by a patrolman for over-time violation. When the officer returned to duty yesterday, it was still there. A check of the tan and red sedan's Massachusetts license plates disclosed that it was the Clifford car.

Held for Essex Sheriff

John J. Minichelli, 37, of 95 Green Street, alias John Mul-story, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Sheldon O'Rourke and Weldon Hall on a charge dealing with alleged desertion of his wife and family. He was picked up on the basis of information in a teletype message from the sheriff of Essex County, N. J., and lodged in the county jail pending arrival of officials from there.

NYC Head Sees U.S. Train Rule

ROCHESTER (AP)—Alfred Perlman, president of the New York Central Railroad, says the state and federal governments must either grant rate increases to railroads or assume ownership of them outright.

In a speech here yesterday, Perlman said: "If things continue as they are, the only answer will be government ownership."

While the railroads are being refused rate increases and other beneficial measures, airlines receive government subsidies and annually pay good dividends as the result of profits, he said. "This grieves me," he added.

Helps His Mate

The male Blackcap bird, a small warbler, often helps his wife incubate her eggs by sitting on them while she takes a rest period. But, the male Blackcap is strictly a ham performer and often betrays the location of their nest because he continually sings while sitting on the eggs.

WILL DO AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY—Geoffrey N. Fletcher of Photo Workshop, 616 Broadway, has recently received a license to pilot an airplane and plans to engage in aerial photography. He is shown here with the Cessna 140 he will use to improve and speed general service to customers.

State GOP Ready To Ram Through $1.7 Billion Cut

ALBANY (AP)—Vote - heavy Republicans were poised to ram their slashed $1,776,458,000 version of Gov. Harriman's budget through the Legislature today.

Democrats planned an all-out fight to restore the $24,342,000 the GOP had carved from the Democratic governor's record $1,800,800,000 spending program.

Republicans will convert about 20 million of the amount they cut into extra aid for education, on a plan to be announced later.

Against School Boost

If the money were spent in this fashion, the over-all reduction in the budget would be less than five million dollars.

Harriman told a news conference yesterday he would "view sympathetically" any proposals put forward by the GOP majorities for boosting school aid.

However, he maintained that the items trimmed from the budget were important and should have been allowed to stand.

The Republican cuts represent mostly new state jobs, pay increases Harriman proposed for state employees in the lower salary brackets and additional aid for Democratic-controlled New York City.

On other subjects raised at the news conference, Harriman: 1. Declined to say whether he would accept the new Republican bill for raising top weekly benefits of unemployment insurance from $36 to $45. GOP leaders softened provisions that drew three previous vetoes and they expect him to sign the revised measure.

2. Declared he could not accept Republican legislation that would fix the state primary election for August. He said a vacation-time primary would "disenfranchise" New York City voters. He advocated holding the primary in June and the political nominating conventions—as the GOP proposes—in August.

Late in the session, Harriman and the legislative leaders will get together on a supplemental budget, to finance appropriations made outside the regular budget.

In past years, the great bulk of money cut from the regular budget was restored in the supplemental budget. Republican leaders maintain that will not happen this year.

ILGWU Walkout Seen Effective

NEW YORK (AP)—The strike of more than 105,000 garment workers entered its second day today, with a union official saying the walkout is 100 per cent effective. Signaling their first major strike in 25 years, members of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union left their jobs yesterday in nine eastern states.

Julius Hochman, general manager of the union's dress joint board, said not only was the strike call 100 per cent effective, but that dressmakers in 50 non union shops also had joined.

Also idled by the strike are some 25,000 workers in such related fields as belt-making, embroidery and garment trucking.

The dispute over wages and contract enforcement affects about 72 per cent of the nation's dress production—in New York State, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware and Maryland.

An estimated 45,000 dressmakers in such cities as St. Louis, Los Angeles, Chicago and San Francisco were not affected.
